ROY D. RENNER TO SERVE OUT RICE'S TERM

Roy D. Renner, Littlestown R. 1, has been appointed jury commissioner of Adams County to fill the vacancy by the death of Mervin I. Rice. The appointment by the county court of the former county clerk of courts is for the remainder of Mr. Rice's term of office, about two years and three months.

Saturday the court granted a divorce to Richard C. Altland, East Berlin, from Fern Freda (Anderson) Altland, whose last known address was Aspers R. 1.

The court granted permission to the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Department of Public Assistance, to enter a judgment for $244.08 against a property of Lola and Sherman S. Speelman based on an indemnity grant signed by the Speelmans May 29, 1946.

SET HEARING DATE

The indemnity grant provided that the state could collect up to $500 if it overpaid the Speelmans when they were receiving public assistance.

According to the papers filed with the court, the state says the Speelmans owe it $244.08 based on overpayment of $32.09 in April and May, 1949 when, according to the state, the Speelmans did not report increases in earnings, and $191.99 overpayment in June, 1957, when, according to the state, the Speelmans did not report earnings of Richard Speelman, a child included in the assistance grant.

October 7 at 10 a.m. was set by the court as the time for a hearing of proposed settlement of the trespass action brought by Ronald D. and Shirley A. Williams, Gettysburg, against Billy Lester (Continued On Page 3)

BUSINESS WAS BRISK AT JAIL OVER WEEKEND

A number of prisoners were placed in the county jail over the weekend.

According to the jail records, Robert E. Willis, 18, Fairfield R. 2, was placed in the jail Saturday by Probation Officer D. M. Anderson on a charge of contributing to the delinquency of a minor placed before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder. He was later released on $500 bail.

Carl Singleton, 29, Aspers, was placed in jail in default of $85 fine and costs on charges of having no operator's license, no registration card and displaying another's license as his own, brought before Justice of the Peace Frederic E. Griest Jr., Flora Dale, by state police.

TWO WOMEN JAILED

Mrs. Mary Rucker, 32, Fairfield, was arrested by state police and placed in jail on a commitment from Justice of the Peace Roger Myers on a charge of issuing worthless checks filed in Du Bois. Authorities from that city were to arrive here today to take Mrs. Rucker to Du Bois.

Ethel Bobo, 24, Iron Springs, was placed in the county jail Saturday in default of $25 fine and $5 costs on a motor code violation placed before Justice of the Peace Roger Myers, Fairfield R. D., by state police. She later paid the amount and was released. According to Sheriff Dawson Miller, the charges arose when she was eating a peach, threw the seed out of her car and it broke the windshield of a passing auto.

Wilbert Jackson, 38, Winter Garden, Fla., was placed in jail in default of $55 fine and costs on several motor code violations brought by state police before Justice of the Peace Frederic E. Griest Jr.

$150 COLLISION

Damage totaled $150 when two cars collided near Brysonia Sunday afternoon at 12:20 o'clock. Police said Benjamin Thomas, 41, Chambersburg, was making a left turn and caught the left fender of a car being driven east by K. G. Kleinfelter, 16, Middletown, causing $25 damage to Thomas' car and $125 to Kleinfelter's vehicle.

CODE VIOLATOR

Hanover police have charged Paul D. Highlands, 16, New Oxford, with failure to obey a stop sign in an information filed before Justice of the Peace William Y. Naill Jr., Hanover.

ELDERLY MAN STRUCK BY CAR

Goodell M. Sieber, 83, 214 Chambersburg St., suffered a broken right leg and cuts and bruises of the face and head when he was struck by an auto at 8:20 o'clock Saturday night on Chambersburg St., 50 feet from its intersection with Franklin St.

He was removed to the Warner Hospital in the local firemen's ambulance and admitted as a patient.

Borough police brought a charge of reckless driving before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder against the driver of the car, Earl W. Stemplinger, 25, Lancaster.

Stemplinger told police that he had been to Mont Alto Sanitarium where his wife is a patient, and had stopped in Gettysburg en route home. He then had gotten into his car and started toward Lancaster at a speed of about 25 miles per hour when Mr. Sieber stepped out from between two parked cars. Stemplinger swerved his auto and the front fender caught Mr. Sieber, hurling him against the windshield.

Police estimated damage to the windshield at $100, and said in their report that both the driver of the car and pedestrian were at fault in the accident.

ON DEAN'S LIST

WOMAN SHOT, MAN STABBED IN WORK CAMPS

A 31-year-old woman was wounded by a shotgun blast at a labor camp near Aspers Saturday night and a migrant worker was stabbed at a labor camp at Gardners R. 2 early Sunday morning.

State police pined Antonio M. Jock, 31, Aspers, in the county jail in default of $2,000 bail on charges of aggravated assault and battery and pointing and discharging a firearm after Inez Colon, 31, was shot at the Adams County Nursery, John Baugher fruit farm camp at Aspers, at 6:10 o'clock Saturday evening. The charges were filed before Justice of the Peace Robert P. Snyder by the officers.

Removed to the Warner Hospital in the Biglerville ambulance the woman had 22 shotgun pellets in the lower right leg and 51 shotgun pellets in the left leg.

Ferdinand O. Santana, 23, suffered a stab wound of the right shoulder early Sunday morning at the Pape migrant camp, near Gardners, according to state police.

They said the wounding was caused by another migrant laborer but did not immediately release any name pending investigation of the incident.

MISS YINGLING WED SATURDAY TO A. A. PATANE

Miss Patricia Grace Yingling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph B. Yingling, 139 E. Myrtle St., Littlestown, and Anthony Albert Patane, 2036 S. Chadwick St., Philadelphia, son of Mr. and Mrs. Angela Patane, Swedesboro, N.J., were united in marriage on Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock in St. Aloysius Catholic Church, Littlestown.

The Rev. Dr. John E. Metz, pastor, performed the double-ring ceremony in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends of the couple. Miss Anna C. Weaver, church organist, presided at the console and accompanied the soloist, Stewart N. Long, Littlestown. The church altars were decorated with bouquets of white pompons, chrysanthemums and full mums and green ferns.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a floor-length gown of candlelight Alencon lace over

Driver's Arm Is Broken By Truck

Juan A. Rivera, 35, Gettysburg R. 3, suffered a compound fracture of the left arm Sunday evening at 6:59 o'clock when his car got too close to a truck 2 1/2 miles north of Arendtsville on the Bridgeport Rd.

State police said Rivera was driving south while Grayson P. Showers, 46, Bendersville, was headed north when Rivera's car crossed the center line of the highway.

Rivera was driving with arm resting on the door of the car, his elbow out the window. The truck and car did not collide but Rivera's elbow struck the truck, causing a compound fracture of his left arm. He was removed by ambulance to the Warner Hospital.

Water Restrictions Off At Fairfield

Sunday morning's showers relieved the water shortage in Fairfield and this morning W. L. Fleming, superintendent of the water company there, announced that all restrictions on the use of water have been removed.

Mr. Fleming thanked residents of the community for their "fine cooperation" since restrictions were announced three weeks ago. "Restrictions are off now," Fleming said. "Our reservoir that had been dangerously low is overflowing today."

Earlier this month Fleming had asked that residents refrain from using town water for washing cars, sidewalks, porches or for sprinkling lawns. The townfolk cooperated "very well," he said.

MISS BAUGHER IS WED SUNDAY IN NEW OXFORD

Miss Lois Virginia Baugher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John M. Baugher, New Oxford R. 1, became the bride of William Clair

Rohrbaugh, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clair W. Rohrbaugh, New Oxford R. 1, at the First Lutheran Church, New Oxford, Sunday evening at 7 o'clock, when the Rev. John L. Kugle performed the double-ring ceremony.

In a setting of white gladioli, white carnations, palms and candelabra, Mrs. J. Felix Sanders, New Oxford, presided at the organ and accompanied the soloist, Miss Deborah Yingling, Hanover. John L. Baugher, brother of the bride, served as acolyte.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a floor-length gown of French floral patterned lace with a fitted bodice, Sabrina neckline trimmed with sequins and long sleeves tapering to a point over the hands. A center panel of the bouffant skirt was of French lace, with sides and back done in five tiers of scalloped lace on nylon net. The hemline was completed with scalloped lace. An elbow-length veil of French illusion in bird cage fashion fell from a double-tiered coronation crown of crystals and rhinestones. She wore a strand of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid corsage and a shower of red sweetheart roses.

Redefinition Of Catholic Church Receives An Early Endorsement By Prelates

By JOHN GALE

VATICAN CITY (AP)—A proposed redefinition of the Roman Catholic church won general endorsement today from the first prelates to speak at the second phase of the Vatican Ecumenical Council.

Two cardinals and six bishops took the floor in St. Peter's Basilica as the 2,500 council fathers resumed working sessions. Pope Paul VI reopened the council Sunday after a nine-month recess with a strong appeal for church reform.

The council press office, summarizing today's three-hour meeting, told newsmen the schema (topic) before the assembly—"De Ecclesia," concerning the church—was accepted by speakers as "a good foundation on which to build."

REVISED IN RECESS

It was revised during the recess, and undoubtedly will be revised further. It will be the main topic before the council's session

TRY TO UPSET ARENDTSVILLE SHERIFF SALE

Nevin Epley, Arendtsville, has asked the Adams County court to set aside a sheriff's sale at which he bid $10,000 for the property in Arendtsville of Harold E. and Mildred E. Martin, because someone took away the large house trailer on which, among other things, he was bidding.

As a result of Epley's petition Saturday, the court placed a rule on the Biglerville National Bank, Harold E. and Mildred E. Martin and Sheriff Dawson Miller to show cause within 15 days why the sale should not be set aside or vacated.

The sale took place September 14 from the courthouse steps and included two tracts of land owned by Mr. and Mrs. Martin improved with a house and house trailer.

BANK FORECLOSURE

The Biglerville National Bank brought about the sale by foreclosing on first mortgages it held against the property. Epley's bid of $10,000 was the high bid for the properties and they were sold to him. He paid $1,000 down and was to pay the other $9,000 on September 27 when the properties would be turned over to him.

According to the petition filed for Epley by Attorney Daniel E. Teeter, on September 19, counsel for Margaret E. Himelright notified Epley that she was the owner of the house trailer and that she was going to move it September 23.

Epley adds that despite warnings by the Biglerville bank that it would not give approval for removal of the trailer and despite warnings by the sheriff that it should not be removed, some person did remove the trailer and as of the time the petition was filed neither Epley nor the sheriff, despite investigation, had any knowledge of what had become of the trailer or who removed it from the property in Arendtsville.

SEEMED PERMANENT

Epley claims he made, prior to the sale, a "reasonable and proper" search to determine that the property for which he was to bid was actually the property of the people being "sheriffed."

The trailer had no wheels and was attached to the ground on the property. It was a large house-type trailer that seemed permanent. A search disclosed that the debts against the property were the mortgages held by the bank and that all debts against the property would be satisfied by the sheriff's sale. A check was made of the records of the Department of Revenue at Harrisburg which showed no record of the trailer and it was believed that it had been delivered directly from the manufacturer to the Martins.

Epley said his check before bidding had also shown that the trailer was assessed as part of the Martin property by the county.

Historical Society To Meet Tuesday

The annual business meeting of the Adams County Historical Society will be held Tuesday evening at 7:30 o'clock in the Old Dorm on the seminary campus.

A special feature of the meeting will be the dedication of the Musselman, Berkey, Hill and Stewart rooms in the building the society has leased from the seminary.

The president, Dr. Charles H. Glatfelter, will preside.

ENDING DEC. 4

The schema, considered the key to all the council's work, proposed a new way for the Roman Catholic church to look at its structure. It came up originally at the council's first session last year and was criticized by many fathers as being too juridical and academic and not sufficiently pastoral. There was criticism that the original draft would not help the cause of Christian unity.

During the recess, a council spokesman said today, 372 proposed corrections and amendments to the first half of the schema were mailed to the Vatican by prelates around the world.

SPEEDY SESSION

A feeling was evident among the church fathers that the session would move with greater speed and efficiency than the first, which ran from Oct. 11 to Dec. 8 last year. This session will continue until Dec. 4.

Showers Sunday Short Of Normal

Sunday morning's welcome showers that brought 1.76 inches rain at The Gettysburg Times weather station and some relief from the current dry spell did not bring September rainfall up to normal.

Only a little less than a third of an inch had fallen earlier this month in Gettysburg so that the September total is 2.07 inches. Normal for September is 3.35 inches so that September becomes the seventh month this year with a shortage of rainfall.

Streams that had not flowed for weeks were running with muddy water since Sunday's showers that began soon after midnight Saturday and continued until late morning.

EDUCATORS TO TAKE PART IN 42ND CONGRESS

A handful of Adams County educators will be participating in the 42nd Education Congress in the Forum of the state education building at Harrisburg Wednesday with Tuesday evening and Thursday occupied by special group meetings.

Dr. Herbert E. Bryan, New Oxford, director of school district organization in the state Department of Public Instruction, will preside over the Wednesday afternoon session and will serve as general chairman for the congress and for the Convocation of Higher Education as the representative of Dr. Charles H. Boehm, state superintendent of public instruction.

Dr. Carl A. Hanson, president of Gettysburg College, will preside over the Wednesday evening Convocation on High Education in the Penn-Harris Hotel at which Governor William W. Scranton will be the principal speaker. The governor will outline his administration's accomplishments to date, especially in the field of higher education, community colleges and technical institutes. Another speaker that evening will be Dr. Gaylord P. Hartzell, president of the University of Pennsylvania.

BRYAN TO SPEAK

The congress is being sponsored jointly by the Pennsylvania Association of Chief School Administrators.

MRS. SHINN, 59, DIES SUDDENLY

Mrs. Leila A. Pitzer Shinn, 59, died Saturday afternoon at 12:35 o'clock while en route from the home of a daughter-in-law, Mrs. Dorothy Pitzer, with whom she resided at Gettysburg R. 3, to the Warner Hospital in the Gettysburg firemen's ambulance.

She had been under a physician's care for some time and Saturday suffered a cerebral hemorrhage at the home of the daughter-in-law at Mummasburg.

A native of Menallen Twp., she was born February 11, 1904, a daughter of the late George L. and Addie (Lupp) Culp. Her first husband, Harvey C. Pitzer, died a number of years ago. She then wed Stewart Shinn, who died some years ago.

She was a member of the Zion United Church of Christ, Arendtsville, and an employee of the C. H. Musselman Company.

Surviving are a son, Eugene Pitzer, Biglerville R. 1; the daughter-in-law with whom she resided, widow of Donald Pitzer, who died in 1959; eight brothers and sisters, Cletus Culp, Biglerville R. 2; Merle Culp, Bendersville; Francis Culp, Gettysburg R. 6; Arthur Culp, Biglerville R. 1; Roy Culp, Orrtanna R. 1; Mrs. John Brough, Bendersville; Mrs. Eugene Tuckey, Arendtsville, and Mrs. John Sharrah, Cashtown, and two grandchildren.

Funeral services Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock from the Peters Funeral Home, Carlisle St., with the Rev. Fred A. Trimble officiating. Interment in the Bendersville Cemetery. Friends may call this evening after 7 o'clock at the funeral home.

All Doe Licenses For County Sold

County Treasurer Daniel J. Wolff today announced that all doe licenses have been allocated. The county has 1,750 to give out. Applications up to Saturday noon totaled 1,750 and as a result the approximately 200 applications received this morning and any additional ones will have to be returned to the senders.

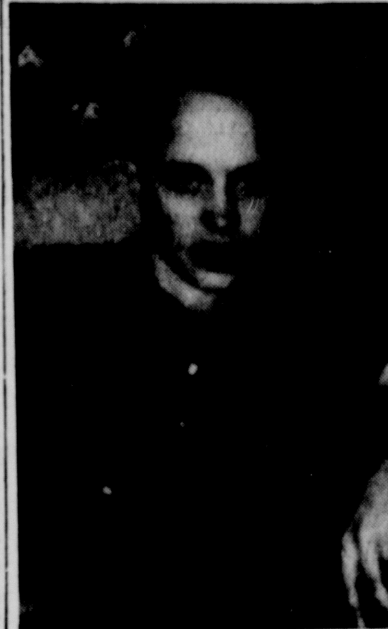

The licenses will be mailed November 7 to the first 1,750 who applied for them. The applications were received within one week after such applications were permitted.

Miss Barbara L. Kuhn, 23, New Oxford R. 1, Is Killed When Cycle Hits Sweeper

Miss Barbara Louise Kuhn, 23, New Oxford R. 1, was killed Saturday night when her motorcycle struck a road sweeper machine three miles from her home. Her body was found 30 feet off the road Sunday morning at 9:15 o'clock.

Dr. C. G. Crist, Adams County coroner, said death was caused by a fractured skull and internal injuries. Her left arm was amputated below the elbow, her right leg was broken and she had suffered numerous bruises and cuts. One shoe was found 30 feet from her body.

Those who discovered her summoned an ambulance and she was removed to the Hanover Hospital where it was determined that death had occurred some hours before and Dr. Crist was summoned. Her wrist watch had broken and was stopped at 8:45 o'clock indicating the accident may have occurred at that time Saturday night.

EMMITSBURG RESIDENT DIES THIS MORNING

Wiley T. Rightnour, 80, died this morning at 1:30 o'clock at the home of his son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald F. Ryder, 327 N. Seton Ave., Emmitsburg, five days after the death of his wife.

Mrs. Rightnour died last Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the Warner Hospital after having been a patient there a week. Her funeral services were held Friday afternoon. The couple had been wed 53 years.

Mr. Rightnour had been under a physician's care for a heart condition for some time. Sunday his condition worsened and death followed this morning.

SERVICES WEDNESDAY

Mr. and Mrs. Rightnour had resided at 320 N. Seton Ave. after moving to Emmitsburg from Gettysburg R. 1, 11 years ago. When Mrs. Rightnour became ill, they moved to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ryder.

A native of Woodland, Ill., Mr. Rightnour was an son of the late Thomas and Mary Rightnour. He was a retired farmer and he and his wife had been among the last homesteaders in South Dakota before moving to the Gettysburg area, along the Taneytown Rd.

He was a member of Trinity United Church of Christ, Gettysburg.

Surviving are three children: Miss E. Rose Rightnour, Baltimore; Wales Rightnour, Emmitsburg, and Mrs. Gerald F. Ryder, Emmitsburg, and 10 grandchildren.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock from the Bender Funeral Home, Carlisle St., with the Rev. Dr. Howard S. Fox officiating. Interment in Evergreen Cemetery. Friends may visit Tuesday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock at the funeral home here.

Mahlon P. Hartzell and Mrs. Luther I. Sachs, brother-in-law and sister-in-law of the deceased, were in York Sunday evening for the viewing. Mrs. Sachs and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Orwig of Gettysburg were in York for the funeral services this afternoon. Howard Hartzell, Gettysburg, another brother of John H. Hartzell, was unable to attend the funeral because of illness.

GRASS FIRE

A grass fire burned over approximately two acres of woods near the old CC camp on Confederate Ave. Saturday afternoon at 1:45 o'clock. Gettysburg firemen extinguished the blaze.

VISITED FRIENDS

Miss Kuhn had visited friends in Hanover Saturday evening and was apparently on her way to her home south of New Oxford when the accident occurred on a road newly completed and opened about three weeks ago near the entrance to the Bethlehem Stone Quarries about 1 1/2 miles north of McSherrystown.

State police estimated damage to her motorcycle at $100. They said she had apparently lost control on a curve and the vehicle left the highway and struck the

CHARGE U.S. HID FACTS

WASHINGTON (AP) — A congressional subcommittee today accused the State Department of "hiding the facts from the American public" by restricting newsmen in South Viet Nam.

The criticism came from the House subcommittee on information, headed by Rep. John E. Moss, D-Calif.

"In recent weeks," a report by the subcommittee said, "the American public has been surprised by developments in Viet Nam—developments which have been many months in the making."

The report said "the restrictive U.S. press policy in Viet Nam... unquestionably contributed to the lack of information about conditions in Viet Nam which created an international crisis."

"Instead of hiding the facts from the American public," the subcommittee concluded, "The State Department should have done everything possible to expose the true situation to full view."

LAWMAKERS OF CONGO REBUKED

LEOPOLDVILLE, The Congo (AP)—Congoese president Joseph Kasavubu sent Parliament home Sunday night because the lawmakers refused to obey his order to write a constitution for the Congo.

In a radio speech Kasavubu said the refusal of both houses to discuss the constitution during the past month "would have led straight to the void" if it had been allowed to continue.

The president had summoned the senate and national assembly at the end of August in extraordinary session as a constituent assembly. After more than three years of independence, the Congo still has no constitution.

Kasavubu said he would shortly call into being a special constitutional commission which, "without the intermediary of the defaulting representatives of the people," would write a constitution.

Young Republicans Assail Democrats

ALTOONA, Pa. (AP)—Pennsylvania Young Republicans have called a resolution adopted by Young Democrats of 13 western states "a threat to the peace and security of the United States."

The Young Republicans also termed as "repugnant to the American ideal" the resolution which urges resumption of diplomatic relations with Cuba, withdrawal of U. S. troops from Vietnam and the signing of a non-aggression pact between the NATO and Warsaw Pact nations.

It was adopted at a meeting last month at Berkeley, Calif.

In other action at the Young Republicans' weekend meeting, State Supreme Court Justice Samuel J. Roberts of Erie County and State Assemblywoman Mae E. Kenaghan of Delaware County were elected to the State Young Republican Hall of Fame.

PORTLAND, Maine (AP) — Frederick Hale, 88, Republican U.S. senator from Maine for 24 years before his retirement in 1941, died Saturday after a long illness. Hale's father, Eugene, served in the Senate from 1881 to 1911. Hale was born in Detroit.

NEW YORK (AP)—Bruce Barton Jr., 41, art editor of Time Magazine, died Saturday. He was the son of Bruce Barton, honorary chairman of the advertising firm of Batten, Barton, Durstine and Osborn and former Republican representative in Congress from Manhattan.

2 MILLION GET VACCINE PHILADELPHIA (AP) — About 2½ million persons in a five-county area have now received the Type I Sabin Oral polio vaccine over the last two Sundays. During the last two Sundays, more than 400,000 persons were recipients. Estimates on the turnout by counties Sunday: Philadelphia 233,758; Bucks 29,000; Delaware 64,000; Montgomery 44,000; Camden 68,000.

Weather

Five day forecast for Tuesday, Oct. 1 through Saturday, Oct. 5: Eastern Pennsylvania, South-eastern New York, New Jersey—Temperatures are expected to average near or slightly below normal. Cool at the beginning of the period, moderating temperatures during the middle and turning cool again toward the end of the period. Precipitation may total up to one-half inch falling mainly as showers after Thursday.

Middle Atlantic States — Temperatures will average two to seven degrees below normal. A little warmer Tuesday and Wednesday. Generally fair weather for the week with little or no precipitation.

Western Pennsylvania and Western New York — Temperatures will average normal to two degrees below normal. Warmer Tuesday and Wednesday then a little cooler in the latter part of the week. Precipitation will be light, averaging one-tenth inch or less with showers possible near the end of the week.

Mrs. A. H. Good, Twin Bridges Farm, addressed a recent meeting of the Gettysburg Garden Club at the YWCA last week. Using materials she has collected she spoke on "Dried Arrangements" and exhibited a number of her arrangements. Members brought flowers and dried materials with them and exhibited arrangements under the headings of "Autumn Glow" and "September Song."

Leslie Bowling will serve as local chairman for the Garden Club Federation of Pennsylvania's fall bulb sale and orders may be placed with him until October 20.

Mrs. Robert Reynolds, president, presided at the meeting with 19 members present. She announced that she will have tickets for sale for the program to be presented in the Biglerville High School October 17 at 8 o'clock by Mrs. H. Wood who is being sponsored by the Biglerville Garden Club. The local club has been invited to attend the annual show of the Town and Country Garden Club, Lancaster, October 5 and 6.

Mr. and Mrs. William C. Shultz and daughter, Ann, R. 6, returned home Friday night from a 6,600-mile trip through the west. Mr. Shultz participated in an elk hunt in Idaho, where he shot a six-point elk, while Mrs. Shultz and Ann continued to California where they visited friends in Monterey Park and LaCanada.

SECRETARY TO DELAY RETURN

SAIGON, South Viet Nam (AP) — Secretary of Defense Robert S. McNamara today postponed his departure for Washington for 24 hours.

McNamara had planned to leave Saigon later today after a one-week inspection tour of South Viet Nam for President Kennedy.

A spokesman said the secretary was delaying his departure until Tuesday to give himself more time to work here on his top secret report for the White House.

McNamara also passed up the last battle area field trip arranged for him, a 3½-hour visit today to the Communist-infested 3rd Corps area of central Viet Nam. Gen. Maxwell D. Taylor, chairman of the U.S. Joint Chiefs of Staff, made the trip.

The American visitors last week spent three days in arduous inspections of the three other corps areas.

The secretary will report to Kennedy on the progress of the war against Viet Cong guerrillas and the effect, if any, on the war of the bitter controversy between the Buddhists and President Ngo Dinh Diem's regime.

The program for the congress will include the annual report of Dr. Boehm, which will be presented by a deputy superintendent and addressed by Dr. Warren Hill, former commissioner of education in Maine and newly-elected president of Trenton State College, and Francis Keppel, U.S. commissioner of education.

Dr. Bryan will speak at the morning session on school district reorganization in the state. At the opening of the morning session Paul W. Grove, Gettysburg, will sing "The Lord's Prayer."

Gettysburg Superintendent of Schools H. Edgar Riegle will attend a district superintendent's meeting Tuesday evening and will attend Wednesday's congress sessions. County Supt. of Schools M. Francis Coulson and his assistant, George B. Inskip, may attend the morning and afternoon sessions Wednesday. Upper Adams Supt. Donald B. Hudson and his administrative assistant, Arthur M. Gordon, also will attend Wednesday.

TRY TO UPSET

(Continued From Page 1) Margaret Himelright, she alleged she had a certificate of title for the trailer, but that the certificate was in possession of the Farmers State Bank of Hanover because of a mortgage on the structure. Later, on inquiry, the Hanover bank provided Epley with a photostat showing a certificate of title for the trailer in the name of Margaret Himelright with an encumbrance of $6,509.80 dated June 4, 1962.

A check-back with the state Department of Revenue showed that it did have on file a record of the certificate of title and encumbrance, but, since no license had been issued for the trailer, the only possible way the record could have been found was through the information furnished by the photostatic copy given by the Hanover bank, or by the manufacturer's number, which Epley claimed it was impossible to find on the trailer.

As a result, she said, Margaret Himelright had a "secret ownership not discoverable by reasonable prudence and investigation" and held that "it would be unjust and inequitable for petition to be required to pay the balance of the bid price and accept title to the property."

WOMAN DIES AFTER BEING HIT BY AUTO

A Hanover woman, who was injured when she was struck by a car Aug. 28, died Saturday morning at 9:45 o'clock at Hanover General Hospital.

Mrs. Mary A. Robinson, 68, of 423 Carlisle St., Hanover, died of a blood clot in a vein to the lung, according to Dr. Donald E. Withers, deputy county coroner.

Dr. Withers said the blood clot was secondary to a fractured pelvis, believed to have been suffered when Mrs. Robinson was struck by a car in Hanover Aug. 28.

TO INVESTIGATE

He said a police investigation would be made into the accident and the results turned over to Dr. Thomas M. Hart, York County coroner, for determination of whether or not the death will be listed as a traffic fatality.

Hanover police reported they had been informed by William D. Brown, 16, Hanover, that on Aug. 28 at about 11:20 p.m. Mrs. Robinson had walked from the side of Carlisle Ave. at Third St., just north of the Western Maryland Railway tracks, and had been struck by a car.

TAKEN TO DOCTOR

Brown told police he had taken Mrs. Robinson to a physician and waited until she had been examined.

He also reported to police that the examination had revealed no injuries.

Dr. Withers said Mrs. Robinson was admitted to Hanover General Hospital Aug. 30 by her physician. At the hospital she had been undergoing treatment for the fractured pelvis until the time of her death Saturday.

Mrs. Robinson, daughter of the late Frank and Josephine (Long) Storm, was a member of St. Vincent's Catholic Church, Hanover. Her husband, Leo C. Robinson, preceded her in death on Feb. 20, 1958.

BURIAL IN NEW OXFORD

Surviving are: Three daughters, Mrs. Edward Feeser, York; Mrs. Harold Busbey, Hanover; and Mrs. Raymond Long, Hanover; six grandchildren and one great-grandchild; and these brothers and sisters: Austin, Eugene and Grandson, all of York; Mrs. Alice Roseway, Baltimore; Joseph Storm, Hanover; and Mrs. Lancy Hartlaub, Littlestown.

Funeral services will be held Tuesday with prayers at 8:30 a.m. at the Wetzel Funeral Home, 549 Carlisle St., Hanover, followed by a Requiem Mass at 9 a.m. in St. Vincent's Church. Rev. Msgr. Robert J. Maher will be celebrant. Burial will be in Immaculate Conception Cemetery, New Oxford.

1,200 Petition For Cross Keys Change

More than 1,200 persons have signed petitions seeking immediate improvements to the hazardous Cross Keys intersection.

The petitions will be presented to the state highway department in the near future, according to Mrs. Sarah Estep, New Oxford, who was instrumental in circulating the petitions.

More than 30 accidents, two of them fatal, have occurred at the intersection of Lincoln Highway and Hanover-York Springs road in the past three years.

The state highway department promised a newly-designed intersection and traffic signals by December, 1962. But James C. Whalen, district engineer, said last week no construction work can be started until next spring.

Plans were just completed and are being reviewed by the highway department.

Mrs. Estep said some 1,200 persons who use the intersection have signed the petition which states: "Continued inaction will promote more loss of life, crippling and painful injuries."

More than 500 signatures were affixed to the petitions in the last week.

a white street-length dress styled taffeta fashioned with a full skirt and a white lace bodice, fashioned with scooped neckline with a V-shaped back set off with a bow. She wore a matching headpiece and carried a bouquet of white mums and yellow pompons centered with a candle.

The bridal attendants, Miss Phyllis M. Baugher, sister of the bride, and Miss Sally A. Rohrbaugh, sister of the groom, were attired in identical dresses of par-fait, styled like that of the maid of honor. They wore matching headpieces and pearl necklaces. Their bouquets consisted of yellow mums and orange pompons centered with candles.

Paul A. Stauffer Jr., Hanover R. 4, served as best man and the ushers were Larry G. Blocher, Hanover, and Charles A. Markel, New Oxford.

TO LIVE IN NEW OXFORD

Wayde Stover, New Oxford, served as ring bearer. The flower girl, Miss Denise Dubs, Hanover, cousin of the bride, wore a white street-length dress styled like the other attendants. She carried a white net basket filled with mums and pompons to match the flowers of the other attendants and wore a matching floral headpiece.

The mothers of both the bride and the groom wore corsages of red sweetheart roses.

Following the ceremony a reception was held in the social rooms of the church, after which the couple left on a wedding trip to Niagara Falls and Canada. For traveling the bride chose a two-piece blue wool dress and black accessories and wore a white orchid corsage. Upon their return they will reside at 14 E. High St., New Oxford.

The bride graduated from New Oxford High School in the class of 1959 and is employed at the Farmers' and Merchants' Bank, New Oxford. The groom graduated in the same class at the same school and is employed at the Alwine Brick Co., New Oxford.

ROY D. RENNER

Fahney, Waynesboro R. 2, as a result of the death of their six-year-old son, Gregory Dean Williams, when the sled he was riding was hit by a car operated by Fahney. According to the petition filed with the court, the settlement would be for $1,500, of which $538.52 would go to the child's estate and the parents would each receive $480.74.

The court handed down an opinion in the petition for declaratory judgment in the estate of Frederick J. Kurtz, late of near Hunterstown. The opinion had been asked because of ambiguity in the will concerning division of parts of the property between Merle Little and Walter B. Lane, two friends of the deceased. In the five-page opinion the court held and quoted the language used at various places in the will, that Kurtz had intended that the house and all furnishings should go to Little and the paintings made by Kurtz should go to Lane.

Carroll Co. 4-H Leader Dies Sunday

Miss Belva Koons, Taneytown, who was instrumental in organizing many 4-H Clubs in Carroll County, died Sunday in the Warner Hospital after a long illness. The only survivors are an uncle and a number of cousins.

Miss Koons, for many years a clerk in the Taneytown Five and 10 Cent Store, was a member of the Trinity Lutheran Church in Taneytown and was a Sunday School teacher there. She was a member of the Lutheran Church Women and of the Mite Society. She had been a 4-H leader for more than 40 years and was a member of the Maryland chapter of 4-H All-Stars.

Funeral services Wednesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the C. O. Fuss Funeral Home at Taneytown with her pastor, the Rev. Howard M. Miller, officiating. Interment will be in the Trinity Lutheran Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home Tuesday evening.

DOCTORS SEW BOY'S ARM ON AFTER MISHAP

READING, Pa. (AP) — Physicians who rejoined the severed left arm of an eight-year-old boy hopefully looked for signs today the limb could be saved.

The boy, Philip Luckenbill, was reported bearing up well. The arm was sewed just above the elbow Saturday when his sleeve was caught in a cornbinder on the nearby farm of his father, Clarence Luckenbill.

"When they brought it in it was cold and mottled and a dead arm," said one of the physicians. "Now we've got a pulse at the wrist, some temperature in the fingers and some color."

STILL TOUCH AND GO

But the physician said it was still touch and go for the arm.

"We did what we could. It's in God's hands now," he said.

Young Luckenbill was helping his father when his arm was dragged into the machinery. The family physician, Dr. Peter Pugliese, was called. He got there in about five minutes. He immediately sized up the situation and called Reading Hospital. A police car rushed Philip and the severed arm the eight miles to the hospital. Doctors said about 20 minutes elapsed between the accident and the start of the 3-hour operation.

CRASH VICTIM'S RITES TUESDAY

Funeral services for Carl David Thomas Jr., 18, Keymer, Md., who was fatally hurt about 6:45 a.m. Saturday when his car ran off a highway two miles west of Uniontown and struck a tree, will be held Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock at the C. O. Fuss and Sons Funeral Home in Taneytown.

Thomas, who was married and employed by a silo builder at New Windsor, was enroute to work when the accident occurred. He was alone at the time.

Surviving are his widow, Barbara Waycaster Thomas Uniontown; his parents Carl D. and Clara Pittinger Thomas, Keymer; these brothers and sisters, Mrs. Leonard Horner, near Taneytown, and Linda, Carolyn, John, Deborah and Robert, all at home, and these grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Clarence H. Thomas, Abbottstown, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond L. Pittinger, Westminster.

The Rev. Richard Kibbe will officiate Tuesday's services and interment will be made in the Middleburg Methodist Cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home this evening.

In other games:

Delaware opened the defense of its Middle Atlantic Conference title with a 30-0 victory over Lehigh, Temple and Kings Point played to a 20-20 tie. California State (Pa.) took its second straight, 46-21, over Bloomsburg as Frank Johnson scored three times for a total of eight TDs in two games.

Susquehanna, which had been unbeaten in 22 games until last week, defeated Youngstown 12-7. The passing combination of Vance Johnston to Ken Snyder accounted for two TDs as Gettysburg edged Juniata, 18-14.

And in a bit of irony, Drexel lost a 3-0 decision to the Coast Guard on a field goal with 29 seconds remaining. Drexel's Irv Campbell had kicked a 15-yard field goal earlier, but the Coast Guard was offside and Drexel took the penalty and tried for a TD. Drexel couldn't move and Campbell then missed a 9-yard field goal try.

Police Capture Runaway Youths

ATHENS, Pa. (AP)—After an automobile chase reaching speeds of up to 90 miles an hour, three teen-age runaways from a rehabilitation center in New York state were captured here, police say.

The chase wound through rural roads south of Elmira, N. Y., and then over the state border Saturday night before the youths stopped at a police roadblock here, police said.

The youths were James Gerhardt, 16, of Rochester; Richard Lovell, 17, of Elmira, and Ned Narehard, 17, of Niagara Falls.

Police said the boys agreed to return voluntarily to New York state.

The youths left a youth division rehabilitation center in Seneca Friday night and stole a car in nearby Auburn, police said. The car first was spotted in Elmira Saturday night, they said.

So Coach Rip Engle was right about his Penn State football team. The Nittany Lions aren't speedy. They just have two victories.

The Lions defeated UCLA 17-14 Saturday on a 22-yard field goal by substitute quarterback Don Coates. Coates kicked the game-winning field goal in the fourth period after an offside penalty nullified an 18-yard boot on the previous play.

"We were lucky to get out alive," Engle said. "I've said all along that we lacked over-all speed and quickness, and we proved it."

Pitt came up with its second straight victory—a 13-6 decision over Washington—as Fred Mazurek, a junior quarterback scored once, passed for another TD, and intercepted a pass to stop a Huskie scoring bid. Villanova overcame a 14-0 deficit with three third period touchdowns to defeat Toledo 18-14.

Penn opened its season with a display of power-running backs, brutal blocking and a strong defense to rip Lafayette, 47-0. Bucknell almost caught Dartmouth, but the New Hampshire team won its 12th straight, 20-18, when the Bisons failed on a two-point conversion attempt following a fourth period 69-yard touchdown pass play.

In other games:

Delaware opened the defense of its Middle Atlantic Conference title with a 30-0 victory over Lehigh, Temple and Kings Point played to a 20-20 tie. California State (Pa.) took its second straight, 46-21, over Bloomsburg as Frank Johnson scored three times for a total of eight TDs in two games.

Susquehanna, which had been unbeaten in 22 games until last week, defeated Youngstown 12-7. The passing combination of Vance Johnston to Ken Snyder accounted for two TDs as Gettysburg edged Juniata, 18-14.

And in a bit of irony, Drexel lost a 3-0 decision to the Coast Guard on a field goal with 29 seconds remaining. Drexel's Irv Campbell had kicked a 15-yard field goal earlier, but the Coast Guard was offside and Drexel took the penalty and tried for a TD. Drexel couldn't move and Campbell then missed a 9-yard field goal try.

KENNEDY HAS NEW APPROACH TO CAMPAIGN

By FRANK CORMIER

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Kennedy is approaching the 1964 presidential campaign with the apparent hope of borrowing a theme from former President Dwight D. Eisenhower: Peace and prosperity.

Kennedy test-marketed the peace argument during the Western tour he just completed. He obviously was pleased with the result, particularly because he drew warm response in the Rocky Mountain area where many voters favor the conservative policies of Sen. Barry Goldwater, Arizona Republican.

AUDIENCE REACTION

Repeatedly, Kennedy was interrupted by applause as he talked up the limited nuclear test-ban treaty, foreign aid and global involvement — all of which he credited with making brighter the prospects for peace.

Unquestionably, this choice of subjects was to determine audience reaction. But these topics also concern Kennedy more deeply than the conservation matters that were the announced focal point of his trip.

Prosperity also figured in Kennedy's speeches — usually in connection with his argument that an $11-billion tax cut is vitally needed as antirecession insurance. If a tax cut is enacted before the election, and a recession is avoided, prosperity certainly will be one of Kennedy's major campaign claims.

Thus, the Democratic presidential candidate next year may employ substantially the same arguments that Eisenhower used successfully against Democrat Adlai E. Stevenson in 1956.

maid of honor. She wore a gown of cranberry satin peau de soie fashioned with flouncing sleeves and a bell skirt. A single strand of pearls enhanced the high neckline. Her headpiece was a pope's hat with matching veil. She carried a cascade bouquet of pink and white fuji mums and pompons.

The bridesmaids were Mrs. Albert C. Battinelli and Mrs. David P. Williams, both of Philadelphia and both sisters of the bridegroom, and Miss Barbara A. Krehl, Collegeville, friend of the bride. They were attired in ensembles and carried bouquets identical to Miss Yingling's.

Gregory Vitale, Philadelphia, served as best man for his friend. The ushers were Albert C. Battinelli, Philadelphia, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; David P. Williams, Levittown, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and Wayne Messetti, Scranton, friend of the bridegroom.

RECEPTION FOR 150

The mother of the bride was attired in a street-length gown of champagne beige celestyn nylon brocade, fashioned with a fitted bodice and matching flared jacket. She had fawn accessories and mint phalaenopsis orchids. The bridegroom's mother wore a street-length gown of Wedgwood blue silk peau de soie with matching accessories. Her corsage was white phalaenopsis orchids.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church parish hall, approximately 150 guests were present from Washington, D.C.; New York City, Fredonia, N.Y.; Vineland, N.J.; Swedesboro, Trenton, Woodstown, N. J.; Belair, Westminster, Md.; Scranton, Springfield, Collegeville, Naticoke, Danville, Phoenixville, Harrisburg, Hanover, Gettysburg and Littlestown.

GOING TO BERMUDA

The couple left on a week's wedding trip to Bermuda. For traveling the bride chose a cranberry wool knitted suit with black accessories. She wore a white orchid corsage. Upon their return, the newlyweds will reside at 332 Sugartown Rd., Strafford.

Mrs. Patane was graduated from the Littlestown High School in 1959, and received the Bachelor of Science degree in Pharmacy from Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science in 1963. She is a member of Lambda Kappa Sigma pharmaceutical sorority.

Her husband is a 1958 graduate of Southern High School, Philadelphia, and received the Bachelor of Science degree from Philadelphia College of Pharmacy and Science with the class of 1962. He is a member of the Kappa Psi pharmaceutical fraternity. Mr. Patane is employed by Yorke Apothecary in Wayne.

summed up this spirit. "I think all the bishops are coming back to this session with a lot more enthusiasm. They know now what is intended and what it is they are trying to do."

In opening the council, Pope Paul said its aims were redefinition and reform of the Catholic Church, restoring Christian unity and closer contact with today's world.

50,000 IN SQUARE

He called the Episcopal assembly a council "of invitation, of expectation, of confidence." His clear voice rolled through the hushed Basilica and out to a crowd of 50,000 persons in St. Peter's Square as he delivered the 10,000-word address in Latin.

Like Pope John, Pope Paul held the door open for a reuniting of Christians. To the Protestant, Anglican and Orthodox observers seated near him, he said: "We lay no snares . . . we do not wish to make of our faith an occasion for polemics."

Bitgood, and, during the ceremony "The Wedding Prayer" by Dunlop.

Given in marriage by her brother, William Higgins, the bride wore a floor-length satin sheath gown, with a scooped neckline, overblouse of imported French Chantilly lace with high neckline and long scalloped-trimmed sleeves. The chapel-length train was made of the imported lace. The gown was designed and created by the bride's mother. The veil, designed and created by the bride, was of net illusion flowing from a crown of white satin covered with lace. She carried a cascade bouquet of large and small chrysanthemums intertwined with ivy.

The maid of honor was Miss Nancy Shannon, York, and the bridesmaids were Miss Karen Higgins, Miss Lydith Jacobs, Chambersburg, and Miss Nancy Waite, Pottsville. They all wore emerald green satin street-length gowns with slightly scooped necklines, elbow-length sleeves and bell-shaped skirts. Their head-dresses were large tailored bows of matching satin and their shoes were of matching satin. The maid of honor carried a cascade of large bronze fuji chrysanthemums with small gold chrysanthemums with ivy and the attendants carried cascade bouquets of large gold fuji chrysanthemums with small bronze chrysanthemums and ivy.

The bride's mother wore a silk beige sheath, street-length gown, with a green velvet pillbox and green shoes to match. She wore a corsage of chrysanthemums in variegated fall colors. The groom's mother was attired in a blue and white jersey jacket dress with softly pleated skirt. She wore a feathered hat to match and a similar corsage.

Following a reception in the fellowship hall of the church, the couple left on a wedding trip to Williamsburg, Va. Upon their return they will reside at 21 Steinhilber Ave., Gettysburg.

The bride is a graduate of Chambersburg Area Senior High School and has been a student at Lebanon Valley College the past year. The groom graduated from the same high school and from Lebanon Valley College with a B.S. degree in Music Education.

He is employed as director of bands at Gettysburg Area Junior and Senior High Schools.

Ross has been a member of the college's Business Society, president of the Ancient Order of Hibernians and an active participant in the intramural sports program. He is a graduate of the Immaculate Heart High School, Fountain Springs, Pa.

HELD FOR ASSAULT

ABINGTON, Pa. (AP) — Fred W. Gentner Jr., 16-year-old son of an Abington Township commissioner, and James Donnelly, 15, face a hearing today on charges of assault and battery. The two were arrested Sunday on charges of attacking Roy Malis, 15, of Cheltenham, and three other boys at a shopping center. Malis was treated for cuts of the face at the Abington Memorial Hospital and released. Police said he was cut with a pocket knife.

TRADING IS DULL

NEW YORK (AP)—Blue chips sagged and the stock market declined in dull trading early this afternoon.

Losses of fractions to about a point were the general rule for most key stocks.

A drop of about 3 by Du Pont pulled heavily at the market averages.

The market was steady at the start but soon began to soften. Prices eroded gradually as the session wore on.

Today's Talk

THINK AND TALK — SUCCESS

By success I do not mean the mere job of establishing a money-making business, or through some turn of fortune, being thrust into the public eye. I mean that success which is so commanding that the moment people come near you they know that you are a success.

It is possible for a man's business to be a success and himself a failure!

What you are in yourself is what counts. Your character will always mean more to the bank than your accumulated dollars. And you will mean more to your friends than all the money in the world. People will like you, trust you, and love you, because of what you are — that something within you that shines out.

Think and talk — success. In words of hope, confidence, and all that expresses a brave front. It's the Spirit of a man or woman that leads, dominates, rises from defeats, and spreads light in the world.

The spreading, or disturbing, of influence is a very serious matter. One never knows how far one's influence may travel. We all carry the influence of many — perhaps thousands — around with us every day of our lives. The influence of a noble father and mother keeps increasing its power upon us. We recall those who once taught us and whose influence still clings to us.

Defeat of no kind can visit itself upon a victorious thinking and talking man or woman. Neither will have none of it. Think and talk the thing that you wish to be — and you will wake up some fine morning to discover yourself in the image of your dream!

Wherever you go, leave a trail of trust behind — a trail of good will, of confidence, and of character. The darkness about others will fade right out after you have been in their presence. Think and talk, beauty, happiness. Be a grand success as a human being!

Just Folks

UNCHANGED

What was of yesterday is dead, What science thought was true Now from the realm of fact has fled.

Always the truth seems new, Only the sunshine and the rain And trees with their nesting birds remain.

Now should the dead of long ago Return to earth once more This changing world they would not know

As one they'd walked before, But smiling up to sunny skies The buttercups they'd recognize.

So swiftly do men's manners change That should the dead return They'd look on us as people strange

Whose customs they must learn, But poppies, growing row by row, And daisies and clover blooms they'd know.

They'd find the birds' nests where they were In their remembered springs, Nature, and all that dwells with her

Would be familiar things. They might not know us, grown so wise, But all the flowers they'd recognize.

SPAHN WINS 350TH GAME

MILWAUKEE (AP)—Baseball's

greatest left-hander, 42-year-old Warren Spahn of the Milwaukee Braves wrapped up another season Sunday with 23 victories for the year and a lifetime major league total of 350.

After blanking the Chicago Cubs 2-0, Spahn said he hopes there are more victories to come.

But from now on he'll "play it by ear."

The incomparable Spahn has won more games than any other southpaw in baseball history. And he also has pitched 62 shutouts to rank sixth among all-time leaders in that category, second behind Eddie Plank's 64 for lefties.

But Spahn takes nothing for granted.

"Look," he said, "I might not even win 351 for all I know. As for 400, I'll be 45 then. Let's play it by ear."

Adding six strikeouts, Spahn boosted his own major league record to 137 consecutive campaigns of 100 or more strikeouts. He had 102 this year.

More important to him, Spahn's 23-7 mark for the year—which he calls "my most remarkable"—equalled his major league high. And he was on the shelf 33 days with a sore elbow.

Abilene, Kan., once notorious as a boisterous cattle town, now is the site of a presidential library that honors a favorite son, Dwight D. Eisenhower. The library is located on three acres of land where the six Eisenhower boys played and planted a garden more than 50 years ago. Dwight Eisenhower's boyhood home, containing its original furniture and furnishings, also stands on the library grounds and is open to the public.

The Eisenhower Library consists of two separate buildings, library and museum, which face each other across a mall. Prominent in the library, which contains documents and papers that help to tell the history of our nation during the term of office of the 34th president of the U.S., is a walnut-paneled Presidential Room. In it can be seen the desk used by Mr. Eisenhower when he was president of Columbia University. Glass-enclosed displays are on view in the foyer. (Hitler's last will is pictured above. It is interesting to note that the Russians recently announced that they have "Hitler's will.")

As could be expected, the museum has a military atmosphere, and visitors are always impressed by the exhibits that portray Eisenhower the Soldier. For example, one collection includes military uniforms he wore, from the gray wool of a West Point cadet to the field green of a five-star general. Also displayed are the map case he carried during the Normandy landing, battle flags and sleeve insignia of military units.

A wide assortment of gifts received by the former president is presented in the museum, including a sword and a rhinoceros-horn shield, the gift of Emperor Haile Selassie of Ethiopia; a bronze helmet once worn by an ancient Grecian warrior; license plates displayed on presidential cars, gavel and baseballs autographed by famous players.

Bullets Defeat Juniata 18-14 On Passes; Indians Put On Strong Late Rally

Behind the strong passing arms of Senior Vance Johnston and Sophomore Jim Ward, the Gettysburg College football team squeezed out an 18-14 win over Juniata Saturday afternoon on Memorial Field before 3,600 fans.

The victory was a big boost for Gene Haas' Bullets who were laced by Buffalo and Bucknell in the two previous outings. On the other hand, the loss marred Coach Fred Prender's debut as the Indians' new head mentor.

Johnston, a former Biglerville High School standout, got the Bullets rolling in the first quarter and this was enough to hold off a fourth period threat by Juniata. Gettysburg took the opening kickoff and moved to the Juniata 11 by way of a recovery of a fumbled punt reception. After giving up the pigskin on downs, Gettysburg got another break when Dave Wehr recovered a Bill Holland fumble on the Juniata 12. Following a 15-yard holding penalty and three plays, Johnston hit end Ken Snyder in the left corner of the end zone from 13 yards out for the first score with 5:07 minutes gone by. Barry Gruber's placement attempt was wide to the left.

LONG PUNT RETURN

Less than three minutes later Gettysburg had forged to a 12-0 lead. Behind some fine blocking, Ken Snyder returned a Grey Berrier punt 39 yards to the Juniata 21. Johnston tossed 12 yards to Dale Boyd and moments later again spotted Snyder in the end zone a 10-yard scoring aerial. Phil Parson's run for the two points was stopped by Joe Buykowski and the score remained 12-0 at the half.

After things had settled down during the second and third quarters, Gettysburg came up with its eventual game-winning TD in the fourth period. The Bullets had driven to the Juniata one-yard line, but on the last play of the third stanza Johnston fumbled a hand-off and the Indians took off. After three unsuccessful plays, Berrier punted and Bob Wolfgang took the fair catch on the Juniata 33. Jim Ward took the quarterback slot and on the first play whipped a 12-yard toss to Boyd. After picking up two yards on an end sweep, Ward again fired to Boyd who made a picture catch over the goal line for a 19-yard TD. This time Ward was stopped running for the two-point conversion.

Following the last score, the Bullets' pass defensive went to sleep and the Indians took full advantage. Juniata took the kickoff on its own 37 yard line and marched 63 yards for its first mark on the scoreboard. Freshman Jim Sutton climaxed the drive when he connected with Grey Berrier, who took the pass in on the Gettysburg 25 and pulled from the clutches of Rod Kuhn to drive over for the score completing the 48-yard play.

Gettysburg was unable to move the ball following the kickoff and Johnson punted out of bounds on the Juniata 38. Again the "never say die" Indians went to work behind the excellent generalship of Sutton. The yearling passer threw six aerials during the 62-yard drive and completed five finishing things up with a 24 yard toss to freshman end Bob Pascale. Junior fullback Don Corle booted his second placement with only 3:08 minutes remaining in the game.

GRUBER INTERCEPTS
Juniata tried desperately to pull the game out of the fire with seconds remaining in the contest, but Barry Gruber squashed the threat by intercepting a Sutton pass on the Gettysburg 35 as the gun sounded.

For the first time in three games, Gettysburg runners put the rushing average in the black. The Bullets picked up 55 yards on the ground with fullback Rick Taylor accounting for 27 yards on four carries. Barry Broadwater, who was injured in the first half and consequently did not play in the second half of the game, rolled up 57 of the Indians' 103 net rushing yards. Johnston completed six of 15 passes and Ward added to the Bullet total with six for nine tosses.

Gettysburg will have its work cut out next Saturday when it travels to Newark, Del., to meet the University of Delaware in an MAC contest.

FIELD GOAL IS DIFFERENCE IN PSU VICTORY

UNIVERSITY PARK, Pa. (AP)—Coach Rip Engle hopes to get a little more swing into his "Swing T" offense in time for Saturday's date here with Rice.

The offense proved somewhat creaky over the weekend and Ron Coates' swinging foot proved to be the deciding factor as the Nittany Lions downed UCLA, 17-14. Despite two touchdowns, the State offense had what Engle mournfully described as "one of those days."

3 INTERCEPTIONS, 2 FUMBLES
Six times the victors gave up the ball without punting. In fact, only once did they punt. On three other occasions, intercepted passes stopped the Lions and they fumbled the ball away. "I hope we got that business out of our system," Engle said today. "It's not like a Penn State team to lose the ball that way. We were lucky to get out alive."

Coates, a senior and No. 2 quarterback, kicked a 32-yard field goal to record win No. 2 in two starts for the Lions.

1ST TRY NULLIFIED

A week ago, at Oregon, Coates' foot also broke a 7-7 tie en route to a 17-7 opening game victory for Penn State.

Against UCLA, he had to try his successful three-point twice. The first, from 18 yards out, was nullified by an offside penalty.

While Coates' 32-yarder made the difference, UCLA quarterback Larry Zeno was the individual standout in the game.

Zeno a substitute, twice brought the UCLA back to tie the score. It became 14-14 in the third period when the junior from Santa Paula, Calif., passed five yards to Bob Richardson for a touchdown, then kicked the extra point.

52-YARD PASS
Penn State scored first, in the second period, when halfback Gary Klingensmith plunged over from the one, Coates added the point.

With Zeno at the helm, the Bruins roared right back, 59 yards in eight plays, with a 10-yard pass from Zeno to Mel Profit completing the scoring drive. Zeno kicked the point.

Junior Powell and Pete Liske then teamed up for the day's most spectacular play, a 52-yard pass from quarterback Liske to halfback Powell, with the speedy halfback running the last 34 yards. Coates' placement gave State a 14-7 halftime lead.

SACRAMENTO, Calif. (AP)—George Roeder, 27, of Monroeville, Ohio, won the 20-mile American Motorcycle Association national championship race at the Sacramento State Fair Grounds Sunday setting a track record of 13 minutes and 45.72 seconds.

HUMMELSTOWN NIPS MIDGETS

The Gettysburg midget football team suffered its first loss after two ties when it bowed at Hummelstown Saturday afternoon 18-0.

The local 12-year-olds, playing for the first time as a unit, were unable to stop the Hummelstown passing attack but gave a good account of themselves in all other departments of play.

Hummelstown scored once in each of the final three periods, the first being on an end run from the 18-yard line and the final two touchdowns resulting from 25-yard passes. Gettysburg's only successful attack pattern was on its sweep plays and it managed to get inside Hummelstown's 20-yard line but once.

Ted Maitland and McClaughlin were standouts on the offense for Gettysburg while Barry Cline, Greg Marvin and Gary Harmon played well on the defense.

The next game for the local outfit will be Saturday evening, October 12, at 8 o'clock with Middletown.

KELSO NAMED HORSE OF YEAR

The ASSOCIATED PRESS

There may be no great public clamor for Chateaugay to challenge Kelso in the Jockey Club Gold Cup at two miles Oct. 19 at Aqueduct, but the Kentucky Derby and Belmont Stakes winner apparently is the only horse left in this country who might give the mighty 6-year-old a battle. Kelso wrapped up his fourth straight Horse of the Year title Saturday, winning his third Woodward Stakes in a row with the ease of stealing candy from a kid. It was the seventh consecutive stakes score for what must be one of the greatest horses of U.S. history.

"The Jockey Club Gold Cup is next," said Carl Hanford, the ex-jockey who trains the magnificent gelded son of Your Host-Maid of Flight, by Count Fleet. Kelso also has a monopoly on this $100,000 affair, winning it in 1960-61-62.

Jimmy Conway, who trains Chateaugay for John W. Galbreath, has indicated his 3-year-old champion may go to Chicago for the Hawthorne Gold Cup Oct. 19, the same day as the Jockey Club classic. But he hasn't definitely ruled out an Aqueduct meeting with Kelso that afternoon.

MUSIAL, SPAHN STAR AS 1963 SEASON ENDS

By JIM HACKLEMAN
Associated Press Sports Writer

The pennants belonged to the New York Yankees and the Los Angeles Dodgers. But 1963's final day belonged to Stan Musial and Warren Spahn.

Musial finished his record-studded career with the St. Louis Cardinals Sunday the same way he started it 22 years ago, with two hits in a 3-2 victory. The Man left his 3,026th and final game in the sixth inning after helping the Cards to a 2-0 lead over Cincinnati. The Reds tied it in the ninth, but St. Louis won in the 14th on Dal Maxvill's run-scoring double.

Spahn, 42, pitched a masterful four-hitter for the Milwaukee Braves in a 2-0 triumph over the Chicago Cubs, winning his 350th game and matching his best previous season's record—23-7. He also hit that mark in 1953.

DOGGERS BEATEN AGAIN

It was a day of anticlimax for the pennant winners. The National League champion Dodgers were beaten for the third straight time by Philadelphia, 3-1, and the American League champion Yankees were rained out of their regular season finale, at New York against Minnesota.

Next on the agenda for the two champions—their eighth World Series show-down—starting Wednesday at Yankee Stadium. In other NL action Sunday—Felipe Alou's three-run homer in the eighth inning carried the San Francisco Giants over Pittsburgh 4-1; and Houston's frisky young Citi, led by 18-year-old John Pociorek in his first big league competition, belted New York's last-place Mets 13-4.

TIGERS, INDIANS TIE

Elsewhere in the AL—Detroit and Cleveland both won, finishing tied for fifth, with the Tigers whipping Baltimore 7-3 and the Indians edging Kansas City 2-1 behind Jim Grant's six-hit pitching. Washington's tail-end Senators clouted the Chicago White Sox 9-2. The wind-up at Boston, between the Red Sox and Los Angeles, was canceled by rain.

Baltimore's loss had an unhappy aftermath for Billy Hitchcock. He was fired as manager of the Orioles after two seasons. Sam Mele was signed on for another season as manager of the Minnesota Twins.

Musial, who broke in on Sept. 17, 1941 with two hits that helped St. Louis down Boston 3-2, bowed out with his last two singles.

Musial's two hits gave him a 1963 average of .251, well below his sparkling lifetime mark of .331. Spahn was magnificent against the Cubs, registering his 62nd career shutout. The ageless marvel finished his 18th full season with the Braves with an amazing 22 complete games, an earned run average of 2.60 and seven shutouts.

Hank Aaron hit his 44th homer in the first for Milwaukee, tying San Francisco's Willie McCovey for the league high, and scored the game's other run in the third after a single and steal of second.

HARRIERS AIN FIRST VICTORY

Displaying a tremendous burst of power, the Gettysburg College cross-country team inaugurated its 1963 season with a stunning 21-38 win over Juniata Saturday afternoon on the country club course.

Juniata, which suffered only its third loss in seven years, could work but two men into the first five places and only five in the top 12 berths. Jim Lombardi, who holds the course record of 21:40.2, toured the four-mile layout in 21:50.8 good for first place. Ed Salmon crossed the finish line second in 21:59 minutes. Jerry Staub captured fifth place with Roger Malehorn and Bob Linders coming in sixth and seventh respectively to round out Gettysburg's point producers.

John Reeves paced the Indians with a third spot, covering the distance in 22:23. Teammate Earl Samuels picked up a fourth with a time of 22:30.

Coach Hal Glad was well pleased with the performance of his runners. Commenting on Linders' seventh place finish, he said, "Linders is working hard to get back in shape and I think that by the time we hit the third or fourth opponent he'll be battling for the No. 1 spot."

Gettysburg's next meeting will be against American University next Saturday on the country club course.

The results: 1, Jim Lombardi, G, 21:50.8; 2, Ed Salmon, G, 21:59; 3, John Reeves, J, 22:23; 4, Earl Samuels, J, 22:30; 5, Jerry Staub, G, 22:55; 6, Roger Malehorn, G, 23:27; 7, Bob Linders, G, 23:42; 8, Bill Chew, J, 24:20; 9, Chet Berkey, J, 24:28; 10, Rich O'Connell, J, 25:08.

Orioles Dismiss Billy Hitchcock

BALTIMORE (AP)—The Baltimore Orioles, slumping at the gate and on the playing field, began the search today for a manager to replace ousted skipper Billy Hitchcock.

Hitchcock was fired after the final game of the season Sunday—following two seasons as manager—and offered a front office job.

The Orioles, who battled the New York Yankees for the American League pennant in 1960 and finished third in 1961 under Paul Richards, slipped to seventh last year under Hitchcock. They improved to fourth this season, but were just as far behind the pennant-winning Yankees.

Attendance dropped to an all-time low of 790,254 last year and tumbled farther to 774,343 this season.

SOUTHERN CAL KNOCKED OFF BY OKLAHOMA

By BOB GREEN
Associated Press Sports Writer

"We still have to improve in a lot of ways," said Oklahoma Coach Bud Wilkinson.

Maybe so, but knocking off the nation's top-ranked college football team should do for a start. "We've still got eight games to go," reminded the Sooner coach. Maybe so, but seven of them are with Big Eight opposition, against which Wilkinson has a 93-82 lifetime mark.

12-GAME STRING ENDS

It took Wilkinson about five minutes to overcome his elation after Oklahoma's 17-12 upset of top-ranked and defending national champion Southern California in Los Angeles Saturday, regain his usual air of caution, and begin pointing out Sooner shortcomings.

The victory, which snapped a string of 12 victories for Rose Bowl champion Southern Cal, was the big one on the Oklahoma comeback that started with last year's 8-2 performance. It made Oklahoma, ranked third last week, a prime candidate to succeed the Trojans in the No. 1 spot.

Wilkinson now has a week off to prepare his swarming Sooners for a date with old foe Texas, ranked No. 4

GOP SUPPORTS SOUND TAX CUT

DUNCAN, Pa. (AP) — Republicans have "many things in common with new frontier promises, but very little with new frontier performance," says U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott, R-Pa.

Speaking at a Perry County GOP fund-raising dinner Saturday night, Scott said the Kennedy administration is "hoping that the hidden thief of every man's pocket—inflation—will not dig too deeply before the next election."

Republicans are for a tax cut, he said, and, in fact, sponsored the "only two major tax reductions in modern times." He added "But, we find it difficult to understand the logic of a tax cut without some thrift on the part of the tax users at a time when federal spending and deficit financing are rising, cheapening the dollar as they go. The consumer price index has already risen almost 3½ points under the new frontier."

Democrats Rap Scott Broadcast

HARRISBURG (AP) — Pennsylvania Democrats tried to stir up trouble over U.S. Sen. Hugh Scott's public service broadcasts over the weekend.

Scott, Philadelphia Republican whose seat comes up for election next year, ignored it. Democratic State Chairman Otis B. Morse released Saturday a letter he had written to Robert H. Maurer, executive secretary of the Pennsylvania Association of Broadcasters.

In it, Morse suggested that Maurer determine whether Scott's use of air time is in conformity with Federal Communications Commission regulations. Morse noted that Scott's term is coming to a close.

A Scott aide said the senator would not comment on the letter.

TODAY

In History

Today is Monday, Sept. 30, the 273rd day of 1963. There are 92 days left in the year.

Today's highlight in history:

On this date in 1846, Dr. William Morton — a Boston dentist — made the first successful use of ether in the extraction of teeth. Four years earlier, however, Dr. Crawford Long of Jefferson, Ga., first used ether as an anesthetic. Morton spent the rest of his life in a futile effort to gain remuneration for his discovery.

On this date

In 1619, the arconetage of Ireland was instituted.

In 1787 the 212-ton ship, the Columbia, left Boston on the voyage that was to make it the first American vessel to sail around the world.

In 1882 the first hydroelectric power station in the United States was opened at Appleton, Wis.

In 1940, British Prime Minister Winston Churchill declared the restoration of Czechoslovakia's freedom to be one of the principal aims of World War II.

In 1954, the first atomic-powered vessel in the U.S. Navy — The submarine Nautilus — was formally commissioned.

Ten years ago . . . President Dwight D. Eisenhower announced his intention to designate Gov. Earl Warren of California as 14th chief justice of the United States to succeed the late Fred Vinson. Five years ago . . . Secretary of State John Foster Dulles said the United States favored reducing Nationalist forces on Quemoy in return for Chinese Communist agreement to halt bombardment of the Nationalist-held offshore island.

One year ago . . . Oxford, Miss., was the scene of rioting after several hundred U.S. marshals escorted a Negro student, James H. Meredith, to his campus residence following his registration at the state university.

Let's Look At The Record

CO-OP MOON-SHOTS
Red Scientists Seek Joint Research
They Say No Race To Moon Exists

By JIM DAN HILL, Ph.D.,
President, Wisconsin State College, Superior

PRESIDENT KENNEDY, before the United Nations Assembly called for American and Soviet cooperation in a joint expedition to the moon.

Following three years of avid and often tense publicity in behalf of winning "the race to the moon" and coming at a time when the lunar shot program is admittedly months and perhaps years behind schedule, it has been hinted that perhaps America is more than willing to settle for a tie in the space race — perhaps call it off entirely.

The impression is also conveyed in many reports and comments that the idea is entirely American and represents Mr. Kennedy's personal diplomacy toward further thawing the cold war. Meanwhile, Moscow with some validity is claiming credit for first proposing cooperative moonshots.

The picture is becoming sufficiently confused that one may well pause to contemplate the pattern.

PUBLICITY and diplomatic propositions calculated to harness the atom exclusively for peaceful purposes have been an objective of American diplomacy even before Mr. Truman vacated the White House. His refusal to use the bomb in Korea is convincing evidence of his good faith. General Eisenhower, as President, expanded and pressed for the same objective in more specific terms.

With Stalin in power, progress was impossible. Indeed, America had to do a bit of bomb rattling of her own to intimidate Stalin from overt aggressions that would have triggered another World War. Accordingly, America's atomic power continued to work for peace, but with more or less reverse English.

Meanwhile, both America and Russia, working independently, except for stealing secrets from one another when possible, have made great strides in nuclear research, rocketry and guided missiles. The probes into deep space with resulting dreams of putting men on the moon is actually a nonmilitary, byproduct of the military missiles research.

There is no military offensive or defensive advantage in having a man on the moon, all the science fiction and propaganda to the contrary notwithstanding. All wars between Earth-men will be fought upon Earth, or from vital bases thereon.

THE BEST REASON for wanting men on the moon is the same urge that causes men to climb the highest and most inaccessible mountains. The mere fact that they are there excites men's ingenuity and curiosity.

Since the progress of mankind, scientific and otherwise, has stemmed from his insatiable curiosity and the resulting challenges to his ingenuity, there is more than adequate reason for space probes and moonshots.

For the foreseeable security of America, a good arsenal of sure-fire missile destroyers merits a higher priority.

The best answer America could have given to Russia's first Sputnik would have been the ability to shoot it down rather than the launching of a quick little spunk of our own.

As it happened, America had neither that day, but quickly responded with the latter. In matters orbital and beyond, we have had something of an inferiority complex for the past six years. The challenge of being able to shoot down an orbiting object remains with us.

At the same time, that challenge is not entirely dissociated from the challenge of putting a man on the moon. Could the same research and resulting hardware be the path to success in both? I have raised this question with sundry well informed persons but have received no satisfactory answers.

THE FACT that the cooperative moonshot idea does not appear to have originated with President Kennedy but with the Russian scientists themselves suggests they think cooperation would help them.

Seven weeks ago this column called attention to a summer visitation of Russian space tracking installations by England's famed astronomer, Sir Bernard Lovell. Upon return he reported the Russian scientists and told him the USSR has no plans for putting a man on the moon. It appeared to him that America's "race to the moon" was strictly a race with ourselves.

The Russians have been planning an orbital vehicle bearing a two-man crew and a 36-inch optical telescope, Air Bernard Lovell was told.

About 48 hours before President Kennedy's dramatic speech to the U.N., Dr. Anatoly A. Blagonravov, an official in the Soviet Academy of Sciences and generally considered a spokesman for the Soviet space research, was at a luncheon in Washington with American officials of the National Aeronautics and Space Administration.

Dr. Hugh L. Dryden, deputy administrator, responded to the Russian scientist's outright proposals for a cooperative American and Soviet attack upon the great lunar project. Dr. Dryden thought it was something to think about, America's Dr. Robert R. Gilruth, director of the Manned Spacecraft Center, did not so much as think about it. He declared it impractical.

The relation, if any, between this luncheon and the President's proposition before the U.N. is purely speculative. It does suggest Drs. Dryden and Gilruth will cooperate with the Russians only, if and when they have orders to do so.

PHILS WRAP UP FOURTH PLACE

LOS ANGELES (AP) — Members of the Philadelphia Phillies were headed home today after wrapping up fourth place in the National League on the last day of the 1963 season.

The Phillies defeated the National League champion Los Angeles Dodgers 3-1 Sunday. The victory, coupled with St. Louis' 14-inning 3-2 victory over Cincinnati gave the Phils undisputed fourth place. Philadelphia and Cincinnati started Sunday tied for fourth.

The Phillies, trailing 1-0, rallied for two runs in the seventh inning. The rally featured a home run by Bobby Wine and a double by Johnny Callison. Tony Taylor drove in the other run in the ninth.

Art Mahaffey, the Phillies starting pitcher who was out much of the season with an injured ankle, had to leave in the fifth inning when he was hit by a pitch. Jack Baldschun and Chris Short then followed. Short picked up the victory and finished the year 9-12. The loser was Pete Richert, 5-3.

The first American globe maker, James Wilson, made all his tools, mixed his inks and prepared his own adhesives and vanishes.

PROMOTION DAY IS OBSERVED AT REDEEMER'S

Promotion Day was observed in the children's department of the Sunday School of Redeemer's United Church of Christ Sunday. Boys and girls promoted in the various classes of each department and special awards were presented. Visiting parents were in attendance.

The fall preparatory service was held on Sunday morning. The Rev. Glenn Flinchbaugh, pastor, presented a sermon on the subject "Dead Men Do Tell Tales" and read the scripture from St. Mark 3:20-25. The Senior Choir sang the anthem, "Come, We That Love the Lord," Emig, with Mrs. George A. Stoner at the organ. The altar flowers were placed in memory of Marvin Nestor by his daughters, Mrs. B. R. Koons and Mrs. Richard E. Miller. The September bulletins were given by Mr. and Mrs. George I. Bemiller.

It was announced that the annual Homewood Auxiliary dues are now being received by one of the following: Mrs. Wilbur A. Bankert, Mrs. Richard B. Hartlaub, Mrs. Helen Jacobs, Mrs. Anna B. Leach, Mrs. John W. LeGore, Mrs. Richard A. Little Jr., Mrs. Clement A. Sneeringer, Mrs. Monroe J. Staveloy or Mrs. Ralph L. Staley.

Redeemer's Consistory will hold its October session at 7:30 p.m. on Wednesday in the church social hall. The choir will rehearse on Thursday, cherubs at 6 p.m.; juniors, 6:30 p.m., and seniors, 8 p.m. The Catechetical class will convene on Saturday at 9:30 a.m. Services of Holy Communion will be held next Sunday at 8:30 and 10:30 a.m. Those who wish to unite with the church at this time are asked to contact the pastor this week.

During the worship service, the Rev. Mr. Flinchbaugh baptized James Robert Hensel, son of Robert D. and Joann (Wehler) Hensel, Lancaster. The parents were baptismal sponsors. The child was born July 15 in the Warner Hospital, Gettysburg.

Immediately following the service, Wayne Alan Kump, son of Charles H. and Julia (Starn) Kump, Hanover, R. 2, was baptized by the Rev. Mr. Flinchbaugh. The parents were the baptismal sponsors. The child was born September 23, 1962.

"A Faith Fit to Live By" was the subject of the sermon delivered by the Rev. William R. Jones, pastor, at the worship service on Sunday in Centenary Methodist Church. He read the scripture lesson from II Timothy 1:1-14. The choir sang the anthem, "What A Friend," Rasley, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Estella E. Furlow. The altar flowers were placed in honor of the birthdays of Mrs. Sandra Harner Mummert and Mrs. May Mummert by Miss Regina Mummert.

The Senior Choir will rehearse at 6:30 p.m. on Tuesday. The Women's Society of Christian Service will hold a bake sale on Friday, starting at 3:30 p.m., in the engine house. Those wishing to have food donations collected are asked to contact Mrs. Ruth Smith or Mrs. Estella Furlow no later than Thursday evening.

Starting next Sunday, the Church School will convene at 9:15 a.m. Holy Communion services next Sunday at 10:30 a.m. and 4 p.m.

Fire Chief Known For Culinary Art

ST. LOUIS (AP) — Battalion Chief Edward W. Gallagher of the St. Louis Fire Department has a way with flames, whether they be on a burning building or in the oven.

Chief Gallagher won the Missouri championship this year in a national men's cooking competition.

The chief won with a culinary creation call "Lobster Chip Boog-A-Roo."

He said the name "Boog-A-Roo" is one he thought up 30 years ago "for a type of slumgullion I fixed for the fellows at the fire house. I put the name to the lobster dish because I couldn't think of any other."

The Rev. David S. Kammerer, pastor emeritus, conducted the worship service Sunday in St. Paul's Lutheran Church. He delivered the sermon. An anthem was sung by the choir. The altar flowers were presented in memory of Miss Ella K. Barker by her sister, Miss Rose V. Barker. St. Paul's Church Council will meet at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday at the church. The Junior Choir will rehearse Thursday at 6:30 p.m. and Senior Choir rehearsal will follow at 7:30 p.m. World-wide Communion services will be held next Sunday at 7:45 and 10:30 a.m., 4 and 7:30 p.m. The second annual Bible workshop will begin on Tuesday, October 22, at 7:30 p.m. There will be a Sunday School officers and teachers banquet on Monday, October 28, at 6:30 p.m.

The consistory of St. Luke's United Church of Christ will hold its monthly meeting at the parsonage, near White Hall, on Tuesday at 8 p.m.

Dollar Claims Abroad Top U.S. Currency Reserves

TODAY'S BUSINESS MIRROR
By SAM DAWSON
AP Business News Analyst

NEW YORK (AP) — Dollar claims by other nations exceed U.S. gold and currency reserves.

Worse, these claims are growing despite the efforts of this nation, the world's strongest economically and financially, to get its books closer to balance. And this year a major run on its gold stocks is being averted to considerable extent by the good will and sympathy (and self interest) of its friends.

This fiscal unbalance could go deeper than just hurt pride. It could lead to a hurt dollar. If unchecked, it could end up in a blow to all the western world's structure of finance and trade.

How did the United States get into this fix?

IN SIMPLEST TERMS

In its simplest terms the problem now being thrashed out in government and banking circles here and abroad is this:

For several years, especially since 1957, the United States has been sending abroad more dollars than it has been getting back. The steadily mounting piles of foreign-held dollars, or credits easily turned into dollars, now adds up to more than $20 billion. By U.S. law other governments or their central banks can turn in their dollars to the U.S. Treasury for gold at $35 an ounce. And off and on they've been doing just that.

The treasury now has only $15.5 billion of gold (down from $24 billion some years back). And $12 billion of this hoard is earmarked as a reserve backing U.S. paper money.

That is Uncle Sam's gold embarrassment.

INCREASING THIS YEAR

His trouble arises from a deficit between outgoing and incoming dollars, called the deficit in the balance of payments. Here is how the deficit has run since 1957: $3.5 billion in 1957; $3.7 billion in 1958; $3.9 billion in 1959; $2.4 billion in 1961; $2.2 billion in 1962.

And this year the deficit has been increasing. In the first three months we ran $300 million behind; in the next three months $1.3 billion short. This made the first half of 1963 about as bad as all of 1962.

But all along the United States has been exporting more goods than it has been importing. This is called the balance of trade.

BUILDUP ABROAD SERIOUS

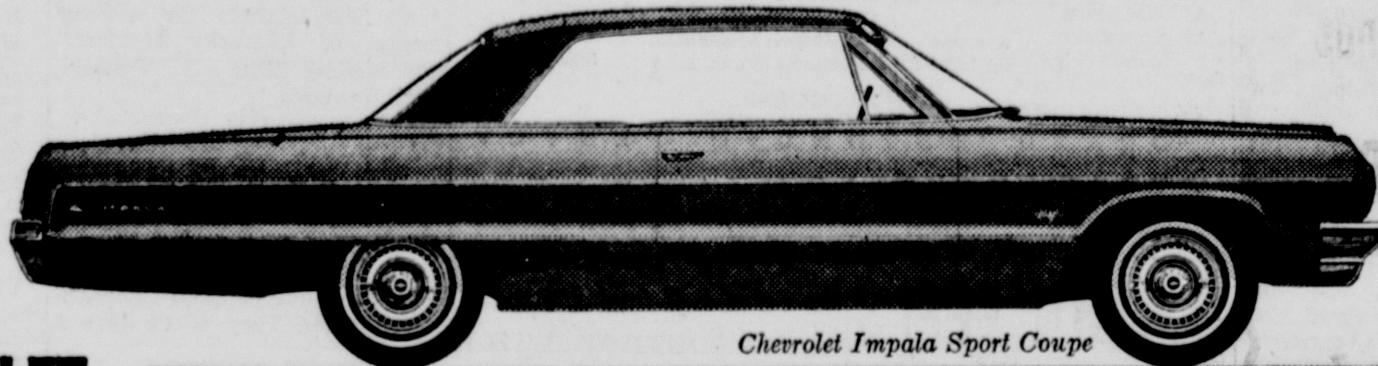

What has really counted has been that balance of payments deficit — the amount each year by which all the outgoing dollars have smothered the favorable balance of trade.

As some of these accumulated surplus dollars abroad have been turned in for gold, the treasury's hoard has shrunk in this fashion: Down $2.2 billion in 1958; $1 billion in 1959; $1.7 billion in 1960; $878 million in 1961 and $911 million in 1962. So far this year the gold loss has been $395 million.

Disquieting as the gold drain has been, what's worrying Washington and many bankers here and abroad is the buildup of dollars and dollar claims abroad.

YASTRZEMSKI WINS BATTING CHAMPIONSHIP

NEW YORK (AP)—Although their final standing the past few years has not been what their fans had hoped for, the Boston Red Sox have the knack for producing American League batting champions.

Carl Yastrzemski, the young Boston outfielder, captured the AL title in 1963 with a .321 average. This was the fifth time in the last seven years that a Red Sox player has won the crown.

Pete Runnels was the pace-setter in 1960 and 1962 while Dick Williams, also of the Red Sox, led in 1957 and 1958.

In the National League, Tommy Davis of the Los Angeles Dodgers finished in first place for the second straight campaign. His average after Sunday's final games was .326. Davis led in 1962 with a .346 mark.

Harmon Killebrew of Minnesota was the American League home run leader with 45 while Dick Stuart of Boston had the most runs batted in, 118.

Hank Aaron of Milwaukee slammed his 44th homer in Sunday's game against the Chicago Cubs, enabling him to tie San Francisco's Willie McCovey for the National League lead. Aaron also took the RBI title with 130.

Musial Bows Out With A Prayer

ST. LOUIS (AP)—The Man bowed out Sunday with gracious power—a prayer on his lip and two hits off his bat.

Before the 14-inning game in which the St. Louis Cardinals beat Cincinnati 3-2, Stan Musial stood with his head bowed as 27,576 fans gave him one standing ovation after another.

Moving to a battery of microphones before about 50 photographers and television cameramen, Musial said:

"I want to thank God for giving me the talent I have had and the good health I've been blessed with."

Then he proceeded to almost duplicate his first major league game against the then Boston Braves (now Milwaukee) Sept. 17, 1941, when he got two hits, drove in two runs, and helped the Cardinals 3-2, the same victory score as his final game.

HOWARD MAY BE KEY MAN FOR YANKEES

By JOE REICHLER
Associated Press Sports Writer

NEW YORK (AP)—If there is such a thing as a key man in a World Series, Elston Howard, the durable New York catcher, could be the man in the upcoming post-season struggle between the Yankees and Los Angeles Dodgers.

Attention will be focused on Howard right from the start. Elie, along with Mickey Mantle, represents the main right-handed power against the Dodgers' left-handed pitching. This series shapes up as one southpaw duel after another.

Two of baseball's very best left-handers, the Yankees' Whitey Ford and the Dodgers' Sandy Koufax, will start in Wednesday's opener at Yankee Stadium. Another southpaw duel between Dodger veteran Johnny Podres and Yankee youngster Al Downing is slated for the second game.

Not worried. The expected 70,000 opening game customers will be watching Howard intently the moment one of the Dodgers' speed demons, notably Maury Wills and Willie Davis, reach base. The pilfering pair have 65 of the team's major league leading total of 123 stolen bases. The Yankees have stolen only 41 bases.

Howard knows all about the Dodger speedsters but if he is concerned he does not show it. "They're good," he admitted today, "and I'm not making the mistake of underestimating them. But we have some pretty good base stealers in the American League, too, and they don't give me too much trouble."

McMullen HURT. Baseball people say, however, that runners steal bases on the pitcher, not the catcher. If so, the Dodger daredevil will find a real toughie in Ford, who can handle base runners as well as any pitcher in baseball. Downing and right-hander Jim Bouton, Manager Ralph Houk's other Series starters are better than average in keeping runners glued to the bases.

The Dodgers may be without the services of their young third baseman, Ken McMullen, for the series opener. The 21-year-old rookie pulled a hamstring in his left leg last Thursday. If McMullen cannot play Alston will move Jim Gilliam, his veteran all-purpose infielder, to third and play Dick Tracowski, another youngster, at second.

Regardless of the winner, the participants will be well rewarded. It figures to be the richest World Series of them all with the players' pool amounting to over a million dollars for the first time.

HOUSTON (AP)—Jack Burke, a veteran of the PGA tour, shot a one-over-par 72 Sunday to win the Texas State open golf tournament by six strokes. He had 282 for 72 holes.

Whether Ken McMullen will be able to resume play at third base remains questionable but Alston expressed optimism that the 21-year-old rookie will be able to start. He pulled a hamstring muscle last Thursday.

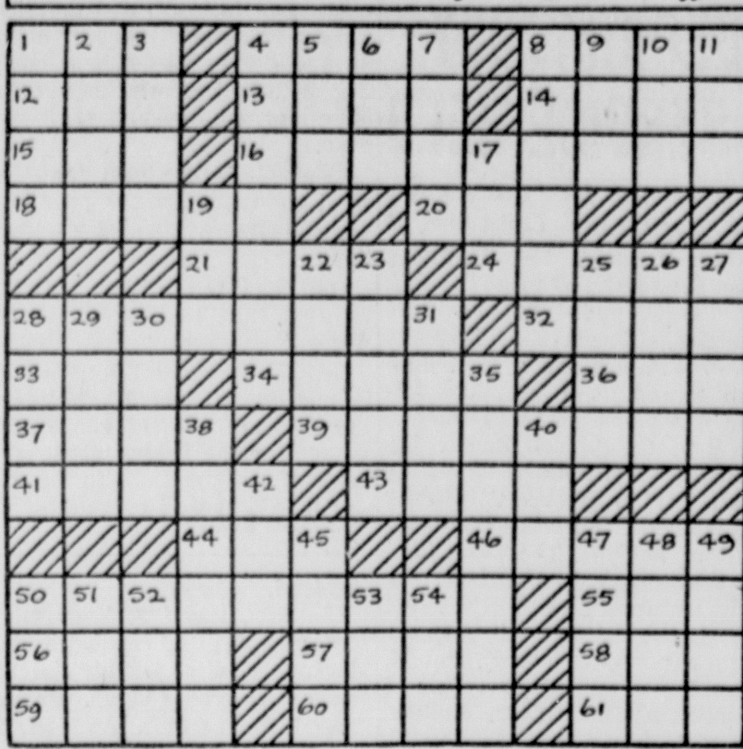

TWO HAVE FLU. Alston indicated some concern in that two of his pitching stars, Sandy Koufax and relief artist Ron Perranoski, have been flu victims and another, Johnny Podres, has been a problem in his recent performances.

Alston confirmed that he intends to start Koufax in the opening game Wednesday and probably Podres the next day, taking advantage of his two left-handers in a stadium known as a haven for left-hand batters.

Alston remained highly vexed with Podres' brief stay Saturday night against Philadelphia. Podres gave up eight runs and 12 hits in 12-3 innings. Included were two home runs.

ALSTON FEELS DODGERS WILL BEAT YANKEES

LOS ANGELES (AP)—The Dodgers, said Manager Walter Alston, have come through in the big games. And perhaps they will do the same against the New York Yankees in the World Series.

Alston spoke as the team packed its gear to head for New York today.

"I believe we'll play better in the series. When we had to beat San Francisco and had to beat St. Louis, we played at our best," said Alston.

Whether Ken McMullen will be able to resume play at third base remains questionable but Alston expressed optimism that the 21-year-old rookie will be able to start. He pulled a hamstring muscle last Thursday.

TWO HAVE FLU. Alston indicated some concern in that two of his pitching stars, Sandy Koufax and relief artist Ron Perranoski, have been flu victims and another, Johnny Podres, has been a problem in his recent performances.

Alston remained highly vexed with Podres' brief stay Saturday night against Philadelphia. Podres gave up eight runs and 12 hits in 12-3 innings. Included were two home runs.

"I had wanted him to stay in five or six innings to get the work done," Alston said.

Alston said he was jarred from a flatbed trailer-truck when it hit a bump. The rear wheels of the truck passed over him.

PA. GOVERNOR HITS BULLSEYE ON BARNDOR

READING, Pa. (AP)—Kentucky marksmen hold a slight lead over their Pennsylvania counterparts in the contest to determine the "true" name of the Long Rifle.

Shooters from the Blue Grass State led 1,199 to 1,080 over the Pennsylvanians following Saturday's match near here, which also featured some sharp shooting by Gov. William Scranton.

Another match is scheduled at Barboursville, Ky., Oct. 12. The team with the most total points will get to call the weapon the Kentucky Long Rifle or Pennsylvania Long Rifle.

Scranton tried his hand by firing at a six-inch target on a barn door, 50 yards away.

The governor warned spectators to step back about 100 miles. He also said the Civil Air Patrol should warn airplanes to stay away.

Scranton then let fly and hit the bull's-eye squarely as the crowd cheered.

For his marksmanship, the governor received a membership in the National Association for the Preservation of Pennsylvania rifle shooting.

Charges interference. Capt. Robert N. Chadwick of Chadds Ford, Pa., coach of the Pennsylvania team and father of Miss Pennsylvania Rifle, Duane Chadwick, 20, made the presentation.

Cook Cundiff of Lexington, a Kentucky rifleman, said the Pennsylvanians were trying to sabotage the Blue Grass State team.

He said the Pennsylvanians tried to spoil the visitors' aim by taking them to dinner, plying them with that cheap Pennsylvania Monongahela rye whiskey instead of Kentucky bourbon, and dazzling them with "Pennsylvania beauties."

MAY BE ANNUAL. "Just wait 'til we get them down in Barboursville in the turn match," Cundiff warned. "We'll feed them some of that good Kentucky bourbon and let them see some of those fine Kentucky ladies. They won't have a chance."

Gov. Scranton, in a brief speech expressed the hope the friendly competition could continue annually.

MINNEAPOLIS (AP)—Harry A. Bullis, 72, former chairman of the board of General Mills, Inc., died Saturday. Bullis, who started his career with the company as a mill hand in 1919, retired in 1959. He was board chairman for 11 years and previously had been president for five years. He was born in Hastings, Neb.

BOWLING GREEN, Ohio (AP)—Claude M. Haswell, 62, publisher of the daily Bowling Green Sentinel-Tribune, died Saturday of a heart attack. Haswell had been publisher since the death in 1955 of his father, Alfred, who had headed the newspaper since 1899. He was born in Bowling Green.

Ten Pitchers Win '20 Or More Games

NEW YORK (AP)—Ten major league pitchers won 20 or more games in 1963 — two more than last year. The only repeater was Camilo Pascual of the Minnesota Twins.

Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers and Juan Marichal of the San Francisco Giants topped the 1963 list with 25 victories.

They were followed by Whitey Ford, New York Yankees, 24; Warren Spahn, Milwaukee and Jim Maloney, Cincinnati, 23 each; Dick Ellsworth, Chicago Cubs, 22; Pascual and Jim Bouton of the Yankees, 21 and Steve Barber, Baltimore and Bill Monbouquette, Boston, 20.

Earl Browder Is Now A Caustic Critic Of Reds

By CHARLES WEST

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP)—Two FBI agents called on a gray-haired, grandfatherly man recently, a trim little man few persons would notice in casual passing.

For two hours they explored his opinions on the background and importance of the Red Chinese Soviet conflict. They took with them his written analysis of the ideological struggle between Red China and The Soviet Union.

"It was the first friendly contact I ever had with the FBI," said Earl Browder, 72, whose contacts with the FBI have been many.

HE WAS EXPELLED. To millions of Americans, Browder's name is synonymous with the U. S. Communist party. He joined the party shortly after its formation and guided it for 15 years through the peak of its popularity in this country, the 1930's.

The late Soviet Premier Josef Stalin ordered Browder's ouster as general secretary, the position of power, in 1945 for "revisionism." Expulsion from the party followed.

Revisionism — or "Browderism," as it came to be known internally — consisted of advocating coexistence. Browder argued that neither armed conflict nor cold war was inevitable. He rejected the basic dogma that communism must destroy capitalism before the world can know peace and social progress.

"DID ME A FAVOR." "Khrushchev occupies today a position on the big issues in the world that I occupied in 1945," Browder said in an interview. "When the Chinese accuse him of revisionism they are merely echoing and elaborating the arguments used against me when I was thrown out of the movement."

"They did me a favor when they kicked me out. I have no hard feelings at all. I deliberately provoked it."

Now a caustic critic of communism, Browder characterized the party in the U. S. as a weak nuisance to America.

JAILED 3 TIMES. Three times Browder went to jail—twice for World War I draft charges and once for passport fraud, a four-year term which President Franklin D. Roosevelt commuted after 14 months in 1942.

"I have no regrets about my past," said Browder. "It is a waste of time to think about it in terms of 'what if.'"

"I think I had a useful life and certainly a very interesting one. It didn't prevent my sons from finding their natural careers in science in American life, although it did give them a lot of hurdles to get over."

Browder's three sons, all university mathematicians holding doctorates, visit him regularly at the apartment he has occupied for 27 years in Yonkers, a community just north of New York City.

"CONSTRUCTIVE ROLE." Browder contended that although he wholeheartedly embraced Communist dogma in the 1930's, he devoted his energy to labor and social reforms.

"I think on the whole that the party under my leadership played a very constructive role," Browder said, explaining that he never felt subversive or disloyal.

Viewing communism as a hopeless cause in the industrialized Western nations, Browder said, "I think America is moving in the right direction. We have a decent society in this country. Poverty is a peripheral problem now which can be overcome by a more thorough development of the American economy, just as the Negro problem depends on the economy for its solution."

A Bit Of History About Early Settlers

By B. F. M. MacPHERSON

THE DILL FAMILY OF MONAGHAN

The account of the pioneer Dill family of Monaghan and of what is now Adams County, Pennsylvania, is continued at this time.

Thomas (3) Dill, the son of James (2) and Jean (Armstrong) Dill, like all the so-called "Scotch-Irish," had a restless foot and when the Pennsylvanians began pushing out to Ohio, the new frontier, Thomas and his younger brother, Robert (3) Dill, with their families and household goods, set out over the Alleghenies and eventually reached the "promised land." The brothers, on November 28, 1803, took out a government patent for one thousand acres of land, located in Paxton Township, Ross County, Ohio. Although Thomas (3) Dill later went to Kentucky he returned to his original holdings in Ross County, Ohio, and there he remained until his death some years later. Rebecca (Hamilton) Dill, the wife of Thomas, died in 1816. When Thomas (3) Dill "departed this life" in the spring of 1834, in the 83rd year of his age, several of his children had predeceased him. Seven of those remaining, having inherited the restless "foot" of their father, had pushed out to a new and ever beckoning frontier. Living nearby, however, was his son, John (4) Dill, and his beautiful but reckless daughter, Charlotte (4) Dill.

"CUTS OFF SON"

In his will, written December 13, 1832, and probated June 9, 1834, Thomas (3) Dill gave no quarter and expected none. He cut off his son, James (4) Dill, with five dollars because he never forgave him for his marriage with Elizabeth (St. Clair) Laurence, a widow with five children and her second husband's senior in age by more than 10 years. Again the grim and somewhat bitter old man showed no pity for his wayward daughter, Charlotte (4) Dill, when he bequeathed her only ten dollars and then, in detail, gave the reasons for his harsh act.

"...Whereas my daughter, Charlotte Langley, hath highly offended and disobliged me and her friends and relations by her late and improvident marriage and in other parts of her conduct in life hath rendered herself unworthy to be called or taken notice of as a daughter, I do hereby declare that the sum of ten dollars, to be paid by my executor to her shall be in full satisfaction — of rights to my estate."

DIED IN OHIO

Note:—Charlotte (4) Dill was born in 1806 and died in Ross County, Ohio, about 1842. She married William Langley in 1832. This was the "wayward" girl who incurred her father's wrath and displeasure. She made her mark with her husband on July 16, 1835, on release to the state of Thomas Dill, her father, at which time her sisters and brothers made provision for her from their father's estate. According to a fairly reliable tradition Charlotte (Dill) Langley had married a roving hunter and drunkard who had led her in paths to which, as a member of the Dill family, her feet had not been accustomed. She did not live for many years after her unfortunate marriage and finally died of sorrow and neglect at or near her little home at Bourneville, Ohio.

James (4) Dill, the eldest son of Thomas (3) and Rebecca (Hamilton) Dill, who incurred his father's wrath and displeasure because of his marriage to the widowed, Elizabeth (St. Clair) Laurence, was born in Belfast, Ireland, about 1778-1789. He studied law, was admitted to the bar and practiced his profession in Laurensburg, Indiana. He (James (4) Dill) was married to Elizabeth (St. Clair) Laurence in 1799. She was the daughter of General Arthur and Phoebe (Bayold) St. Clair, and was first married, in 1782, to Captain John Laurence. According to tradition she separated from her husband in 1793 and, with her six small children, returned to live with her parents at Ligonier. At any rate she was keeping house for her mother in 1796. In 1799 Captain Laurence died and shortly thereafter she and James Dill were married and emigrated to Anconmatt, at which place her father was stationed. Here the only child of James (4) and Elizabeth (St. Clair-Laurence) Dill was born — a son, Hamilton (5) Dill — in March of 1800.

SERVED AS SCOUT

Returning to the family of Matthew (1) Dill, the pioneer founder of the clan in this country, the second son, Thomas (2) Dill, was born about 1720 in Ireland and died between October 13-27, 1750. He was married about 1743 to Mary — (?) — Thomas (2) Dill was a frontiersman and scout and his life was comparatively short — he was only about thirty years of age at the time of his death. He (Thomas) was named one of the executors of his father's will but the young man was dead before the will was probated on October 27, 1750.

Thomas (2) Dill's widow, Mary Dill, after the death of her first husband, was married, for the second time (presumably as his second wife), to Caleb Beals, a member of an old Quaker family in what is now Adams County, Pennsylvania. On June 20, 1752, Caleb Beals produced an acknowledgment in Huntingdon Meeting — for marriage by a priest to a woman not joined to Friends. It is interesting to note this expression because the almost identical words were used when Mary Dill Beals' son by her first marriage, Thomas (3) Dill Jr., married Priscilla Wierman in 1775.

Issue of Thomas (2) and Mary Dill —

1. John (3) Dill — born 1744 in the Monaghan Settlement, York County, Pennsylvania — thought to have emigrated to Ohio.

DIES AT PITTSBURGH

2. Mary (3) Dill — born about 1746 in the Monaghan Settlement — died at Pittsburgh, Pennsylvania, about November 1826 — probably buried in the graveyard of the First Presbyterian Church of that city. She was married at Carlisle, Pennsylvania, on August 28, 1765, to James Bracken.

Note:—James Bracken, the son of Thomas and Martha (Green) Bracken, was a member of the Episcopal Church. He helped to pay, in 1760, for the building of the Glebe House in Huntingdon Township, then in York, but now in Adams County, Pennsylvania, and was also a warden in Christ Episcopal Church for many years. Without a doubt he was a most useful member of the community and his death, which took place between September 11 and October 29, 1778, was a loss to the settlement. James Bracken is un-

A Lovelier You

By MARY SUE MILLER

SUPER FACIAL. A professional facial is just about every woman's idea of luxury. But if you cannot avail yourself of salon pampering, you need not feel deprived. You can have a super facial on home grounds, and here's how you go about it:

1. Smooth on a cosmetic cleanser, from base of throat to forehead. Let it "float" on the skin for several seconds and then tissue off. Now apply more cleanser and, with sweeping upward strokes, massage throat and cheeks; in the chin, nose and forehead areas, use quick rotary motions. Work for a full minute and again remove cleanser.

2. Wash with a stiff lather of mild soap and a soft complexion brush. Rinse until the skin squeaks, by splashing with warm water.

3. If your skin is dry, massage for five minutes with your favorite emollient. This time direct all strokes upward and outward. The next moves are optional. You may remove the emollient—every trace—with skin freshener and apply a skin-compatible mask. Or you may leave the emollient on for 10 minutes, while you lie down with your feet propped up and your eyes covered with witch hazel pads. In that case, the finish is a toning with either chilled freshener or water—spunked on with an absorbent cotton patten.

For oily skin, this step is the application of a treatment mask. No option!

Option or no, one super facial results in a clearer, fresher look to the skin. Taken weekly, your complexion achieves its rightful radiance.

A LOVELIER COMPLEXION

Whatever your skin problems, to find a solution send for my booklet, "A LOVELIER COMPLEXION." Detailed advice contained includes the correct care for dry, oily, combination and normal skin types; proper application methods; treatments for blackheads, enlarged pores, circles, wrinkles, crepiness, etc. For your copy of "A LOVELIER COMPLEXION," write Mary Sue Miller, Box 158, The Gettysburg Times, Dundee, Ill., enclosing a LARGE, SELF-ADDRESSED, STAMPED ENVELOPE and 20 cents in coin to cover cost and handling.

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
ATHENS, Greece (AP)—The president of the Supreme Court has been named by King Paul to head a caretaker government until Greece's parliamentary elections Nov. 3.

Stylanos Mavromichalis, a 61-year-old jurist who has been out of politics since joining the tribunal in 1946, was appointed premier Friday following the resignation of Premier Panayiotis Pipinelis.

SEOUL, South Korea (AP)—South Korea's military regime reported Saturday that 27 Communist agents attempting to infiltrate opposition political circles have been arrested since May.

The government announcement came amid renewed opposition charges that South Korea's strongman, Gen. Chung Hee Park, played a role in a 1948 Communist-led revolt of a South Korean army regiment. Associates of Park, a candidate in the Oct. 15, presidential election, doubtedly buried, with other members of his family, in the old burial ground of Christ Episcopal Church, near York Springs, this county.

The notes on the Dill family will be continued in this column next week.

Confederate Widows Try To Recall Civil War Tales

EDITOR'S NOTE: In the South still live about 426 widows of the men who wore the gray in the Civil War. Here's the story of six of these women, now all residents of an Old Soldiers Home in Atlanta.

By KATHRYN JOHNSON
ATLANTA (AP)—A mind searching back over memories of nearly a century finds it hard to remember tales a soldier-husband must have told.

"My husband was Gen. Andrew J. West," says 96-year-old Mrs. Eva West, in a quivering voice. "He fought... he fought, but I've forgotten where."

The long drums of memory stir only thinly for the six widows of Confederate soldiers who live at the Old Soldiers Home here.

All must have heard much of the tragic dramas of Missionary Ridge, Bull Run, Shiloh, Vicksburg and The Wilderness. But old age has taken away the recollection.

Even the eldest, Mrs. Minnie Cowan, who will be 100 in November, was too young to remember the war. Most were born after it.

TEENAGE SOLDIER

Mrs. Louise Hudson, a spry 8, said her husband, James Emory Hudson, went off to fight at 16.

"Mr. Hudson was 39 years old when I was born," she says. "I married him when he was about 60, I guess, but he didn't talk much about the war."

"I recollect something he said about how he got back from Virginia when the war ended."

"He said a colored man from Georgia had gone to Virginia with his master to fight the war. When his master was killed, he told James, 'I'll get you home somehow.'"

"He did, too. He got food somehow for James who was so sick he had wasted away. That colored man almost carried him home."

Mrs. Hudson came to the home only two weeks ago. "Before I broke my hip, I moved like a June bug," she says, her brown eyes alert. She has hopes of walking again.

"She was up at 6:30 this morning to read the paper," a nurse says. Asked if she kept up with space travel, Mrs. Hudson replies, "Oh, yes, but it's wrong. We have no right to go up there. God gave us all we need; He didn't want us to delve further."

HUSBAND A COLONEL

The youngest occupant, 81-year-old Mrs. Maria Carson, recalls: "My husband, George Lumpkin Carson, was a colonel in Morgan's cavalry. Seven of his brothers were killed in the war. He used to talk about Appomattox, but I don't remember what he said."

The world seems far away from the worn, rambling red-brick building set back among green lawns on Confederate Ave. The six widows who call it home are among 104 of Georgia's surviving widows of the men in gray.

The faded walls abound in musty relics and pictures of the Civil War. The bearded face of Gen. Stonewall Jackson looks sternly down as a nurse's footsteps echo hollowly in the long corridor.

Two of the white-haired widows, Mrs. Rosie Adams, 90, and Mrs. Dora Edmondson, 94, have hung portraits of their husbands in their rooms.

have dismissed the charges as nonsense.

Police said the ringleader of the Communist infiltrators, Lee Do-eun, was seized with more than $200,000 in U.S. currency. Five women were among the alleged Red agents.

NORTH BAY, Ont. (AP)—Canada's 56 Bomarc anti-aircraft missiles will be fitted out with nuclear warheads within two months, says a Canadian air force official.

The dispute over whether Canada should accept U.S. warheads contributed earlier this year to the fall of the Conservative government of Prime Minister John Diefenbaker and the election of his Liberal successor, Lester B. Pearson.

Air Vice Marshal James Harvey, commander of the northern region of the North American Air Defense Command, made the announcement Friday. He said nuclear warheads will be available in several months for the Canadian air force's 63 Voodoo jet interceptors.

Littlestown FIREMEN WILL MEET TUESDAY

Alpha Fire Company No. 1 will meet at 8 o'clock Tuesday evening at the engine house. The October social committee includes Robert Murren, Robert Hahn and Larry Six.

Members of Sylvania Lodge No. 613, Independent Order of Odd Fellows will attend the first fall meeting of the Adams County eral government. The home used to accommodate as many as 100 veterans. All Confederate veterans are now dead.

Some of the porches and roofs are rotted away and the upper story is abandoned. The downstairs, however, is snug and comfortable. Near the entrance is a portrait of Henry Grady, Southern editor and orator, who launched the drive for funds to build the home in 1889.

Other Southern states who have Civil War widows are Alabama, 63; Mississippi 1; Louisiana 35; Virginia 91; Tennessee 32; South Carolina 60 and Texas 76.

Past Grands Association at 8 p.m. on Tuesday with Gettys Lodge No. 124, IOOF, in Gettysburg.

Seventy-five Littlestown Little Leaguers and four managers attended the big league baseball on Saturday afternoon in Baltimore. The trip was made by bus.

Junior Girl Scout Troop No. 976 will meet at 6:15 p.m. Tuesday at the Community Center. Junior Troop 960 will meet Tuesday at 3:30 p.m. in the Scout room at the Community Center.
